Something New Under the Sun

These planes represent two recent and revolutionary advances in aviation. Above: The first stainless steel military plane ever built, an Army trainer, soars over Bristol, Pa. Use of stainless steel eliminates riveting, resulting in speedier construction. Below: Flying over New York, is a molded plastic plywood plane. Besides being cheap, plywood is stronger proportionately to its weight than aluminum.

Final Bulletins

Reds Gain Foothold

MOSCOW (AP) — Russian marines have landed on the German-occupied Finnish Gulf coast before Leningrad and gained a foothold in fierce, continuous fighting, Red Army dispatches said tonight.

No Strike Now

OTTAWA (CP) — With settlement of the Pacific Bolt Company strike at Vancouver, there is not a single strike now in effect in war industrial plants in Canada, the Labor Department said today. The department said the Vancouver dispute was settled by the personal intervention of the Labor Minister, Hon. Norman McLarty.

Plends for Clemency

VICHY (AP) — Paul Colette appealed for clemency today to Marshal Petain, the only man who can save the young Norman from a death sentence pronounced by a special French court for the attempted assassination of Pierre Laval and Marcel Deat. Petain's decision remained undisclosed.

Trapped By Blast

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP) — A tremendous explosion this afternoon leveled three two-story buildings in the heart of the business district here, and fire that broke out immediately trapped an uncounted number of persons in the flaming wreckage.

Wants War to End

LONDON (CP) — The Helsinki newspaper Suomen Sosialidemokratia was reported today to have expressed the hope the war against Russia would soon be over for Finland.

Killed Instantly

REGINA (CP) — Alex Dupuis, 55-year-old Regina barber, was killed instantly today in attempting to rescue a girl elevator operator trapped by the elevator in the new Regina Trading Company building. The operator, 25-year-old Patricia Bradley, was taken to hospital with both legs crushed below the knees.

Gas Prices Up

OTTAWA (CP) — Most Ottawa service stations raised their gasoline prices 2 or 2½ cents today following the order of G. R. Cottrell, federal oil controller authorizing an increase of 1 cent a gallon, "in protest at the failure of the oil companies to permit dealers an increase in their margin of profit," said A. M. Cronsberry, secretary of the Ottawa Gas Dealers Association.

40 Japanese Killed

TOKYO (AP) — Forty Japanese were killed and 62 injured within the past 24 hours in two major railway accidents in separated parts of Japan.

Eagles Get 4 Nazi Planes

LONDON (CP) — The all-American Eagle squadron of the Royal Air Force shot down four German planes today in raids on the continent.

Brooklyn Wins To Tie Series

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK (AP) — Brooklyn's beloved Dodgers came roaring back behind great pitching by big Whitlow Wyatt to defeat the Yankees 3 to 2 today before 66,248 cheering fans and knot the World Baseball Series at one victory apiece.

Wyatt, 32-year-old righthander who won 22 games during the recent National League campaign, pitched masterfully after his shaky start. His fast ball appeared to grow faster as he went along, bearing down on every pitch, and toward the last the Yanks were lucky to touch him.

Peace for Day When Prisoners Cross Channel

LONDON (CP) — Britain and Germany will take time out from their war in and across the English channel this week-end to assure safe passage for 3,000 wounded prisoners of war—half of the number British, half German—who hadn't expected to see home before the end of hostilities.

Two British hospital ships, each transporting 1,500 men, will try to make the crossings by daylight but if tides prevent landing in time the ports will be lighted and the ships will carry lights—the first such exceptions in the blackout since the war began. The agreement provides for fighter planes, bombers and submarines to withdraw from the scene.

The two vessels will be concerned only with getting their wounded out and into port as quickly and as comfortably as possible.

The German prisoners will be embarked at a south coast British port and landed at a northern French port. The British prisoners will travel in the opposite direction—probably simultaneously.

Switzerland, through which at least one trainload of British wounded already has passed en route to the French port, has agreed to act as transport intermediary. All the British prisoners are coming from Germany.

Duncan Sandys, Financial Secretary of the War Office, announced in a broadcast Monday that at least 1,000 severely wounded British soldiers would be repatriated.

Relatives were advised not to go to the landing port. In their place the government and welfare agencies will function. Among the preparations is a cache of 1,152 bottles of beer.

Executions, Murders, Terror As Uprisings Sweep Europe

Associated Press

From every corner of Nazi-dominated Europe today come reports of continued uprisings against the German masters.

Europe's millions are evidently chafing bitterly under the yoke of Nazi conquest, and German executioners and the Gestapo are working overtime in the occupied countries.

Despite ruthless sentences of death and life imprisonment, the people of half a dozen countries, now under the Nazi heel, are determined to risk their very lives as part of a gigantic plan to free their countries from the iron boot of Hitler and his hordes. There are indications the uprisings are getting out of German control.

In German-occupied Paris, Paul Colette, 21-year-old Frenchman, has been sentenced to death by a special state tribunal for the attempted assassination of Pierre Laval and Marcel Deat last August 28.

In several countries there have been attempts in the last 24 hours on the lives of German soldiers of occupation; the axemen and the firing squad are busy at dawn each day in the capitals of conquered nations.

Slipping through the night to kill, burn, wreck and spy on German occupying forces, conspirators by the thousands are challenging Hitler's regime in Norway, France, Belgium, Holland, Yugoslavia, Greece, Rumania, Bulgaria and elsewhere.

In Croatia alone, tens of thousands of Serbs are reported to have launched guerrilla warfare against the Axis-sponsored regime.

The Germans threatened public hangings in the ancient cobblestoned squares of some capitals. Already the courtyards of grim old prisons have resounded to the march of German soldiers and the swish-swish of the guillotine.

In Berlin it was said Gen. Alois Elias, Premier of Bohemia-Moravia, who has been sentenced to death, was not immediately executed because he had availed himself of the right of asking clemency—which only Hitler can grant.

Germans pronounced the Czech revolt incipient as 39 new sentences of death were handed down in the protectorate, and a state of emergency was extended to additional districts.

Gen. Alois Elias—faces death.

CONFESSED

Spokesmen indicated Gen. Elias appealed for clemency after confessing, according to the Nazis, that he had conspired with enemies of Germany.

The sentencing of Elias was said in Berlin by Germans to have impressed the Czech people with firmness of the German intention to employ sternest measures to crush opposition within occupied territory.

It was asserted that with Germany herself deep in a fight for life she cannot tolerate an "internal front" against her.

Germans pronounced inaccurate any impression that Bohemia is in a state of rebellion. They said the death sentences were made on the basis of a police inquiry over an extended period.

As the situation was described in Berlin, it was not a case of suppressing rebellion but of nipping one in the bud.

Besides the 39 new death sentences, Nazi reports said another 228 persons had been arrested by the Gestapo on charges of preparation for high treason and economic sabotage. Some of these later were released, it said.

130 TO DIE

Separate, unofficial compilations based on figures released by DNB and Dienst aus Deutschland, indicate 130 Czechs either have been executed or condemned to death.

Protector Reinhard Heydrich also decreed control of food supply and distribution in the proteCTOR through establishment of special economic supervision bureaus.

Their purpose, Dienst Aus Deutschland said, was to combat sabotage of foodstuffs.

In another part of German-occupied Europe, two Frenchmen, Henri Leclercq and Germain Lepoivre, were reported by the Brussels (Brussels) Zeitung to have been executed, following their conviction by a German military court on charges of espionage.

Further trials were forecast as the Gestapo quizzed almost 300 other Czechs rounded up since last week-end under a state of emergency decreed to stamp out alleged host acts and sabotage.

Thus far, it was disclosed, only five of those brought to trial have been acquitted.

Elias, arrested Sunday on orders of Heydrich, deputy chief of the German secret police, had held the post of Premier since April, 1939, and was a keyman in the Nazi-picked administration of Bohemia-Moravia. He also held the portfolio of Minister of Interior.

CONFISCATED

The Premier's property, was confiscated by the court which sentenced him to death.

Heydrich, whose investigation of conditions in the protectorate have brought sudden death to many Czechs, has been raised to the rank of general of the security police by Hitler.

He went to Prague from Norway, where his presence coincided with the declaration of a state of civil siege by Nazi occupation authorities.

In Zagreb, Croatia, a dozen German airmen en route to the airport were fired on from the shadow of a building Tuesday night and two of them were killed.

The remaining 10 men charged in the direction of the shooting, it was said, and captured six men carrying pistols. The prisoners later were described as Communists.

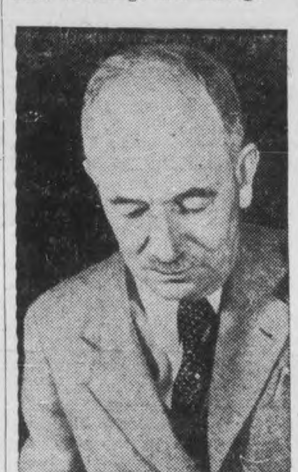

A decree issued at noon today in Zagreb provided that in event of any further "Communist attacks on persons or property" 10 "known Communists" would be executed in case the guilty persons are not apprehended within 10 days.

From Budapest came the report German authorities, seeking to halt acts of sabotage they attributed to Communist elements in Hungary, have announced that 38 Communists would be taken from Nagy-beckerek prison and hanged publicly in the event of further violence.

42 EXECUTED

The announcement, the newspaper Magyarorszag said in a dispatch from Subotica, followed execution of 42 persons in Banat—the Hungarian-occupied part of former Yugoslavia—for attempted train wreckings and killings.

Edouard Benes—sees "terror wave."

Thirty of these, the paper declared, were shot after being caught with weapons and explosives in an alleged plot to assassinate officials. The other 12—described as Communist prisoners—were hanged in public on order of German military authorities in reprisal for an attempt to wreck a passenger train by removing rails, the paper said.

As a result of attempts to sabotage communications, German authorities were said to have issued an order holding the civilian population responsible for guarding railways from dusk

6 Nazis Downed

LONDON (CP) — The Air Ministry announced tonight six German planes were destroyed by the R.A.F. in a series of sweeps over the Channel, northern France, and the Norwegian coast today. Three British fighters are missing.

to dawn from now until October 11.

In Berne, Switzerland, the Swiss telegraphic agency quoted Bulgarian reports that Greeks in the Bulgarian-occupied Macedonian area of Drama had attempted an uprising Monday with machine guns, hand grenades and revolvers. The news agency's dispatch, from Budapest, said police and military forces "re-established calm."

The announcement about Colette gave no details on the trial and did not indicate when the death sentence would be executed.

The French news agency Telemondial in commenting on Colette's sentence said "everyone knows the judgments of this court are immediately carried out." There was no other indication, however, that Colette had yet been executed.

SHOT BY NAZIS

At the same time it was announced in Paris that one Sylvain Tribouillois had been shot Wednesday by German authorities for illegal possession of arms.

Laval, who had asked before Colette's trial that his assailant be spared the death penalty, has arrived at his estate near Vichy, while Deat was released at the same time from a hospital at Versailles.

In London an authorized Czechoslovak source described the wave of executions in Bohemia-Moravia as an "intellectual purge" aimed at preparing the German-controlled country for transfer of heavy industries from bomb-battered Hamburg, Bremen and Ruhr valley centres.

This source said there had been 720 trials by Gestapo courts and 126 executions.

Several times the number placed on trial have been arrested, he declared, and 80 per cent of those being shot are intellectuals such as professors, army leaders or heads of the Sokol.

The Sokol is a nation-wide Czech athletic organization.

Reinhard Heydrich—ruthless.

"It is the belief of Czech authorities," he asserted, "that the bloody purge is aimed at destroying all persons capable of organizing the Czech people into resistance cells."

"By checking the names of those shot we find many have been in concentration camps for months, therefore could not have been plotting against the Germans."

"One of those executed was the well-known professor, Vladimir Groh, who had been interned since February."

Czechoslovak officials pointed out that Bohemia-Moravia occupies an important strategic position, particularly since the start of the campaign in Russia.

"It is our belief that the German plan is to absorb the protectorate and reduce the population to a slave laboring class by killing all leaders capable of carrying on opposition, then move heavy industries to central Europe where they would be out of reach of the Royal Air Force, and at the same time, closer to the Russian front," a spokesman asserted.

Action in Atlantic

British warships are doing this

Because of shipping attacks like this . . .

Swift, sleek British destroyers, sweep past a British transport in this picture of warships on Atlantic patrol duty, R.A.F. fliers, returning to Iceland from leave, are on deck of ship from which this picture was taken. One reason why U.S. vessels are now on patrol and convoy duty as far as Iceland is vividly portrayed, showing direct hit of an aerial bomb on a freighter during attack by German raiders on an Atlantic convoy. The freighter, evidently obscured by the explosion, sank after the raid.

TIA JUANA FROM B.C.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Evelyn Burleson, Tacoma flying instructor, today wired William Templeton, Vancouver airport manager, that she had successfully completed her nonstop good-will flight from Vancouver to Tia Juana, Mexico.

The flier left here Wednesday at 2:35 p.m., P.S.T., in a 600-pound sports plane with good-will letters to Pres. Avila Camacho.

Internees Punished

LONDON (CP) — A four-week suspension of visitors' permits and withdrawal of movie and concert privileges for a similar period were ordered as a result of a disturbance in the Isle of Man internment camp September 20.

The penalties followed recapture of three interned persons who escaped.

Elderly Widow Robbed Of Life Savings

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police today were searching for a thief who strong-armed 70-year-old Mrs. Jemima Ward in a lane Wednesday night and made off with her life savings of $1,500, which she had withdrawn from a bank four months ago and carried around in a red, woolen bag for "safe-keeping."

$25,632.972 UP

OTTAWA (CP) — Income tax revenue during September totaled $37,257,170, an increase of $25,632,972 over September, 1940, Revenue Minister Gibson announced today.

From April 1 to September 30, 1941, income tax collections amounted to $344,064,527, as against $143,652,247 collected in the corresponding period last year.

Parliament, Tory Party Approve Reds as Allies

LONDON (CP) — The House of Commons today approved unanimously a vote of confidence in the Churchill government based on the Prime Minister's decision "to welcome the Russian nation as an ally in the struggle against aggressive barbarism, and to fortify their resistance by every possible means."

Later, a meeting of the Conservative party similarly approved unanimously the vote of confidence in the Churchill government.

Sir Cuthbert Headlam, Conservative, made the motion.

"We should realize," he asserted, "that the Russians are fighting in a most heroic manner for their country, for the defence of holy Russia, and not in defence of Marxian doctrines."

"We should be very foolish if we did not realize that at present our interests and those of Russia are identical."

Irish Republican Army Split Top to Bottom

DUBLIN (CP) — The outlawed Irish Republican Army, which solemnly declared war on England a few years ago, is in the thick of a desperate internal crisis which Dublin observers believe will be the end of it for a long time.

Little has been heard of the underground army since the bombing outrages in London lavatories and cloakrooms were brought under control before the outbreak of war, but the I.R.A. is reported to be split from top to bottom. It is believed the Belfast I.R.A. men feel the Dublin headquarters have fallen down on the job, to such an extent the Belfast section kidnapped the chief of staff, Stephen Hayes, during a "purge" in Dublin.

Hayes was one of the two ring-leaders who remained at large after Britain had rounded up the conspirators, put them in Dartmoor prison or sent them home. The other was Sean Russell, whom Hayes succeeded, and there are reports that either he is dead or dying of tuberculosis in a sanatorium in Portugal whence he fled after things became too hot in the United States to continue collecting funds.

Hayes' case is more intriguing. After succeeding Russell as chief of staff, he eluded the Dublin Castle flying squad but now he is under their protection, at his own request.

Passersby in Rathmines, smart Dublin suburb, gaped not long ago when a wild-looking man, with snow-white hair, shuffled past them, a revolver in his hand. He was partly in chains and pieces of rope were tied around his body. He was shouting for a policeman. A woman told him the way to the police station.

A few minutes later, a flying squad appeared on the scene, there was a sputter of machine gun bullets and a man fell in the roadway. He is dangerously ill in the County Meath hospital.

The full story has not yet been told, but it is thought Hayes was kidnapped by the Belfast section of his organization which kept him imprisoned in chains for several weeks, and it is believed he obtained a gun and escaped just in time to avoid being killed.

The I.R.A., faced with the difficulty of obtaining funds from the United States now that the government of Eire confiscates money from those who try to run the blockade, has turned to the old method of bank and post office hold-ups.

HOW BIG is a head of lettuce?

Good lettuce heads vary: Some grow in tighter, heavier heads than others. Some heads are larger, some smaller.

But most stores price it all at so much a head! So you squeeze the heads, and try to choose the heavier, more solid one.

To get your money's worth you may have to take a larger head than you want—or else pay the same price for a smaller head.

Now if lettuce were priced by the pound, you could pick out just the head you like and pay only for the exact amount of lettuce you get.

If lettuce were advertised at so much a pound, you could compare prices. You can't now, because "large heads" are one size in one store, another size somewhere else.

Your Safeway now prices lettuce by the pound. You can select the exact lettuce head you want. And the weight of your purchase determines the price.

Not just lettuce. On every vegetable and fruit Safeway carries you now get all the advantages of free selection and pricing by weight. Come and try this new way.

Many prominent women tell us they would like every store in town to price all fruits and vegetables by weight. Then you could get just the amount you want, just the sizes you like, and full value for your money every time. Wherever you trade, why don't you ask your store man about it?

Nazis Fail to Crack Line

Associated Press

All-day efforts by massed German forces to crack the Russian line on the southern front have been repulsed in a violent battle, the Red army reported today.

In the northwest, around Leningrad, three Nazi assaults have cost the invaders more than 1,200 dead and wounded without gain, Moscow said.

German dispatches to Berlin from the front credits the Russians with making a powerful counter assault on the lower Dnieper River in an attempt to cross the river westward, but claim Hungarian forces defending the sector maintained their hold.

The Soviet information bureau said one Russian infantry unit inflicted more than 400 casualties on the Nazis, while another killed or wounded 200 men, crippled six German tanks and captured 17 machine guns.

The southern repulse of the Germans netted one Russian unit 15 field guns, 7 mortars, 18 machine guns, 150 rifles and other equipment, Red Star said. Another Russian force in the same area reported capture of 100 German officers and men.

In the siege of Odessa on the Black Sea, the Soviet information bureau said guerrillas operating behind the German lines made 18 raids during September, destroyed seven large bridges, mined 16 roads and killed several hundred Germans and Rumanians.

As an example of guerrilla methods, one detachment of 25 German motorcycle troops was chased into one of the lagoons near Odessa and drowned, the Russians said.

German use of gliders, apparently in the struggle for Crimea east of Odessa, was disclosed by the Soviet information bureau in a statement that three of the craft had been shot down.

This action against glider transport of troops and supplies was one of a series of Soviet aerial blows reported as the season's first snow blanketed parts of the Ukraine.

"In one day," a communique said, "fliers of an air unit of the Black Sea fleet brought down 10 enemy planes and three gliders."

Pravda, Communist party newspaper, said German air squadrons, including the Condor Legion, had lost 170 planes during attempts through the last two months to bomb Moscow, and declared that only 100 raiders in all had pierced the capital's defences.

World Series

Failure to Hit In Pinches Defeats Yanks

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK—Failure to hit in the pinches was responsible for the defeat of the New York Yankees by Brooklyn Dodgers, 3 to 2, in the second game of the world baseball series today. The famed siege-guns of the American League left 10 men stranded on the paths as compared to only four for the National League Dodgers.

When the Dodgers squeezed through to victory by one run they brought to an end the sensational string of Yankee world series victories at 10 straight.

After being pounded for four solid hits and two runs in the first three innings, Whitlow Wyatt settled down to blank the Yankees the remainder of the route, while his mates were bounding Spud Chandler from the mound in the sixth frame, when they scored the winning run.

The Dodgers made only six hits off Chandler and his successor, Johnny Murphy, while the Yanks got nine off Wyatt.

As a result of today's well-earned victory, the National League got into the third game tomorrow on even terms with the Yanks, and with the added advantage of playing in their own Ebbets Field in Brooklyn.

Combining two hits with a walk the Yankees gained a one-run lead in the second inning. Keller opened the inning with a sharp single into short centre field. Dickey struck out on three pitches. Gordon worked Wyatt for a walk. Both runners advanced on Rizzuto's ground out to Herman. Chandler hit a high bouncer to Lavagetto at third and beat the throw for a single. Keller scored, but Gordon, who also tried to reach home, was nailed at the plate.

Yankees added another run in the third inning. With two away high fielder Henrich lined a double into the right field corner. DiMaggio walked. Keller hit the first pitch into short right for a single, scoring Henrich. It was the fifth hit off Wyatt, as compared to the single blow allowed Brooklyn by Chandler for three innings.

Fourth inning saw the Yankees get to Wyatt for another pair of singles, but smart fielding on the part of the Dodgers kept the American League champions from scoring.

TIE SCORE

Dodgers finally got to Chandler in the fifth, and two hits and a walk tied the score. Camilli opened with a walk and raced to third on Medwick's double against the left field wall. Lavagetto walked to load the bases. Reese grounded to Rizzuto, who threw to Gordon, forcing Lavagetto at second as Camilli scored and Medwick reached third. Owen singled into left field, scoring Medwick. Yankees nipped the rally as Wyatt hit into a double play, Gordon to Rizzuto to Sturm.

Sixth inning saw Brooklyn take the lead for the first time in the series and marked the departure of Chandler from the mound. Walker was safe on an error by Gordon at second base and raced to third on Herman's single between short and third. Chandler left the box to be replaced by Johnny Murphy, famous Yankee right-handed relief pitcher. Reiser struck out. On a hit-and-run play Camilli looped a single into right field, scoring Walker and sending Herman to third. Medwick grounded to Rizzuto and Herman was thrown out at the plate. Lavagetto fled to DiMaggio to end the rally.

Through the sixth and seventh innings Wyatt held the Yankee bombers helpless, giving up only one hit. In the eighth the New Yorkers advanced a runner to second with two out when shortstop

Reese was charged with a double error on Dickey's grounder. Gordon was purposely walked and Rizzuto grounded to Reese for the third out.

Yankees made a desperate attempt to get back the tying run in the ninth when pinch-hitter Selkirk opened the inning with a single. He was forced at second when Sturm's attempted sacrifice was well-handled by catcher Owen. Rolfe grounded to Herman, forcing Sturm and Henrich popped to Walker, leaving Brooklyn the victor by a single run.

HELD PRISONER ON HIGH ROCK

SUNDANCE, Wyo. (AP)—A 30-year-old dare-devil who once flew with the R.A.F. shivered atop a skyscraping rock formation today, after a day and night as a prisoner of its height because of the gambling spirit which led him to parachute to its disc-like summit.

The lone occupant of the geological freak, called Devil's Tower, was George Hopkins of Rapid City, S.D. He faced a perilous three-hour descent to the rolling hills below, down the sheer walls of the pinnacle which rises like a huge tree stump a quarter of a mile into the sky.

On a wager with Earl Brocklesby of Rapid City, Hopkins bailed out of a plane flown by Joe Quinn of Rapid City at 8.11 a.m. Wednesday, and dropped 600 feet to a safe landing on the barren top.

Quinn dropped him a long coil of rope for the descent—but it slithered down one of the sides of the basalt tower, which rises 1,280 feet above the Belle Fourche River Valley. Another rope was dropped but Hopkins delayed his dangerous descent.

Rent Control Called Failure

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Rent control in Hamilton has proven an "utter failure" Mayor William Morrison stated today, declaring profiteering was being carried on as "flagrantly" as when the city was not designated a controlled area.

The only persons who had felt the affect of rent control, His Worship said, were landlords who enjoyed a justified claim to increased rent, and they had been put to a lot of inconvenience to secure such increases.

This law, rent control, is being disgracefully violated, and what is more, the head of the rent control board knows it, and is not taking any action," Mayor Morrison said when the question was raised in board of control. "So far, to my knowledge, there has not been a single case of rent profiteering prosecuted in Hamilton, notwithstanding the fact that the city has asked that action be taken in specific cases of pure profiteering."

Prime Minister Churchill announced today the session would be held soon.

Some well-informed sources already have said the limit has been reached in pulling men from civilian life so far as the United Kingdom is concerned. There are unconfirmed reports that no further strictly British army divisions will be raised. There has been an appreciable let-up in PITTSBURGH (AP)—Hotel executives operated elevators and cooked meals today as the steel city's eight principal hotels strove to accommodate 3,500 guests bewildered and bothered by a strike.

The walkout of 2,400 service employees of the hostilities Tuesday midnight left their managers and white collar workers with the necessity of performing menial tasks themselves.

Registrations were being refused and guests had to shift for themselves, such as by carrying their own luggage and making up beds.

Somali hotels, unaffected by the strike, were doing a landslide business among the hundreds of out-of-town business representatives making calls in this great defence centre.

The strike was called by the American Federation of Labor Hotel and Restaurant Employees' International Alliance, seeking wage increases of 15 to 20 per cent for service employees, whose scale had ranged from $20 a month (bellhops) to $175 a month (chief cook and chief baker).

Message From King On 100th Birthday

VERNON (CP)—Congratulations from the King and Queen were received by Mrs. Lydia Tarry, when she celebrated her 100th birthday Wednesday.

The cable from Buckingham Palace read: "The King and Queen are much interested to hear that you are celebrating your 100th birthday and send you hearty congratulations and best wishes."

Other congratulatory messages were received from Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Premier D. Pattullo of British Columbia, and Hon. Grote Stirling, M.P. for Yale.

Born in London, England, October 1, 1841, Mrs. Tarry came to Canada in 1889 and with her husband, the late James Tarry, settled at Saltonstons, Sask. Later she moved to Tarry, near Nelson, and came to Vernon in 1927 to be near her son, Frank Tarry of Falkland.

In excellent health, Mrs. Tarry attends church regularly, is British Columbia's oldest active Red Cross worker and lives in her own home with an elderly companion.

Can Britain Invade?

LONDON (CP)—The question of whether Britain herself can go much further in building an army capable of continental invasion and still maintain full-war production in industry will be aired at a private session of Parliament.

Prime Minister Churchill announced today the session would be held soon.

Some well-informed sources already have said the limit has been reached in pulling men from civilian life so far as the United Kingdom is concerned. There are unconfirmed reports that no further strictly British army divisions will be raised. There has been an appreciable let-up in clamor for invasion of the continent and there appears to be growing acceptance of the idea that a land offensive must be deferred a year or even two.

Instead, there is new emphasis on providing arms and munitions for Russia's millions.

Mr. Churchill told the House the distribution of manpower "constitutes a direct and central part of the war effort which we do not by any means desire to invite the enemy to be a party to," and that therefore the debate might have to be held in a private session.

"If they knew the full distribution of manpower," he said, "they could probably divine a great deal of our internal situation."

More Sugar For Britons

LONDON (CP)—Maj. Gwilym Lloyd George, parliamentary secretary to the Ministry of Food, told the Commons today "largely owing to the help of North America" the minister will increase the sugar ration 50 per cent from eight to 12 ounces, effective November 17.

The domestic fat ration is to be increased by 25 per cent from eight to 10 ounces, bringing it near to the pre-war average.

Mr. Lloyd George said that whatever the future trials, "we can at least say that at this moment we are in better position to withstand those trials than it was thought possible a few months ago."

"We are in a position at the moment to concentrate once again on trying to supply ourselves with those things which we have had to go without so long."

Regarding staple commodities, which he did not specify, Maj. Lloyd George said "we are in regard to them in practically every instance better off than not only last year and the year before, but in some cases than even before the war."

1 Dies, 28 Hurt In Train Crash

SCHREIBER, Ont. (CP)—Gunner G. F. Schmeko, stationed at Petawawa military training camp, was killed and 28 other persons—five of them from Vancouver—were injured when C.P.R. Transcontinental trains collided head-on late Wednesday near Peninsula, Ont.

Schmeko was standing in a coach vestibule at the time of the crash.

The injured aboard the west-bound train included: Mrs. Bond, Vancouver; Miss Karen Ericson, Vancouver; Mrs. A. Olafson, Vancouver; Anita Olafson, Vancouver; Mrs. L. Blondell, Vancouver.

The seriously injured included Joseph Roleau, engineer of Schreiber. Other members of the engine crews jumped and escaped injury.

Mrs. George Pearson of Toronto, who was en route to Vancouver with her husband and small daughter, said there was no panic.

Her daughter, June, and another young child were playing under the seat in the coach when the trains collided.

"Had they been in the aisle," said Mrs. Pearson, "they would have been seriously hurt."

She said heavy pieces of baggage were thrown about the car, including a large tool chest owned by her husband, which was hurled more than six feet down the aisle.

Meanwhile Harry Davis of Montreal died in hospital at Three Rivers Tuesday, bringing to two the death toll of last night's wreck of the Montreal-Quebec pool train, in which 40 other persons were injured.

Still Banned

LONDON (CP)—Home Secretary Herbert Morrison said today "in the view of the government the Communist party is not loyal to this country" and indicated the government still would not permit the Daily Worker to resume publication.

He declined to reply when a critic asked whether that meant he believed "the friends of Hitler are loyal to this country" and whether there was "any legal reason" why the suppression of the Daily Worker, a Communist newspaper, should continue.

Prime Minister Churchill and Mr. Morrison both have repeatedly indicated the British-Russian alliance made no change in their opposition to the Communist organization in Britain.

Admiralty to Keep 3-Days' Silence

LONDON (CP)—A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, said today the Admiralty henceforth would adhere to the policy observed recently when silence was maintained concerning an Italian attack on Gibraltar harbor until three days after it was announced officially in Rome.

"Owing to the paramount importance of denying information to the enemy it was inexpedient to issue a statement and the same consideration makes it impossible for me to give an undertaking that in similar circumstances in the future I shall be able to adopt a different policy," the First Lord declared.

Sisters Absolved Of Allegations

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Sisters of Charity of Providence, who operate St. Paul's Hospital here, were absolved of allegations of conspiracy to discharge three members of St. Paul's Hospital union by Mr. Justice Sidney Smith in Supreme Court.

His Lordship said Wednesday after a five-day trial he could find no grounds to allow the claim of Alfred Patrick Hemingway, Hector Desmond Gould and Thomas Rutherford for damages against the Sisters.

He reserved judgment on their claim against Gerard Smith, Donald Oakley and Hugh Duddy, officers of a rival employees' organization the three men charged had conspired with the Sisters to deprive them of their employment.

Ask Police Chief Ousted for Speeding

TORONTO (CP)—Controller Fred Hamilton at a meeting of the board of control has asked for suspension of Police Chief Brig.-Gen. D. C. Draper, who has been charged with dangerous driving following a motor car accident at Newtonville, east of here. The board postponed action until after the police commission meeting Thursday.

Colleges and universities find an increasing demand for technical training courses, the result of national defence needs.

Canada Newsmen Hear de Gaulle

LONDON (CP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle, the Free French leader, noting the appearance among Allied peoples of a solidarity of aims and determinations "which guarantees victory," declared today the free peoples of the world "now form a chain which never can be broken."

"We ourselves, the Free French," he told an Allied press luncheon at which the group of visiting Canadian newspaper representatives were guests, "are proud to contribute as far as they can to the sacrifices and successes of our allies."

"We confidently hope that one day the vast resources of the defenders of liberty will be able to deploy altogether in a decisive battle."

Gen. de Gaulle, discussing Germany's one-by-one policy, pictured the war as a conflagration of violence spreading little by little around its central hearth which once again was Germany.

He said the fact "flames always have the initiative over the fire brigade" and that "for a century the flames have invariably come from the same place" must have counted for something in the Atlantic charter which Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt laid down as the principle for the future peace of the world and to which Allied nations have lent their adherence.

AIR CASUALTIES

OTTAWA (CP)—Latest casualty list of the R.C.A.F. brings total dead and missing in the force since the war began to 816. The new list follows:

OVERSEAS

Killed on active service—Sgt. D. H. Budden, Montreal; P.O. R. D. Anderson, Weston, Ont.; P.O. Colley, Denzil, Sask.; died on active service, P.O. J. B. MADE TREES GROW ON BALD PRAIRIE

OTTAWA (CP)—The man who made trees grow where there were none before, Norman M. Ross, has retired as superintendent of the Indian Head, Sask., Dominion forestry station.

For 40 years Mr. Ross devoted himself to making the "bald-headed prairie" a haven for trees and he supervised the distribution to more than 65,000 farms in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta of 180,000,000 deciduous trees and 3,600,000 evergreens.

The son of a British army officer, Mr. Ross received his early education in England and worked for a time at the experimental farm at Indian Head, later at tending the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, Ont.

The 480 acres of the Indian Head station became a beauty spot under the direction of Mr. Ross as he demonstrated that trees of many types would flourish in prairie soil.

"It has been estimated that the total cost of the tree-planting policy in the Dominion has been about $1,000,000 but it has increased the value of farms taking advantage of it by about $15,000,000," one official said.

"... and there will always be a London"

Envious foes may destroy London's ancient and beloved buildings. But they can never rob mankind of what, within those buildings, Londoners have created and contributed to the sum of human well-being. London's outstanding gift to smokers has been the development of the world's finest pipe tobaccos. Piccadilly, though made in Canada, follows faithfully the true London tradition.

Duchess Forgets Clothes Because of War Duties

PEKISKO, Alta. (CP)—The Duke of Windsor says he has not made any decision to sell the 3,000-acre "EP" ranch, west of this trading post in the Alberta foothills.

"I came here to review my property," said the Duke as he and the Duchess welcomed more than 20 newspapermen and women and photographers at a press conference.

The Duke, speaking to the newspaper men in the living-room of the ranch home, announced they would be at the ranch "about a week" before returning to Nassau, the Bahamas, where the Duke is governor. They will visit the Duchess' aunt at Baltimore. Her Grace chatted with the newspaper women.

Asked if he and the Duchess would return to the "EP" ranch to live after he was through with his duties in the Bahamas, the Duke said that any decision in that matter "lies in the lap of the gods."

Asked if his immediate plans for the ranch were to build up his livestock herd, the Duke said "I wouldn't be building them up like they were previously."

Before selling most of the purebred shorthorns on the ranch in 1938, there were hundreds of animals feeding on the foothills there.

The Duke did say, however, that the matter of restocking was being reviewed with Prof. V. L. Carlyle, ranch manager, "who keeps an eye on my property when I am away." He also said Mr. Carlyle, 73-year-old agricultural expert, who has managed the ranch 22 years, "would probably" continue the managerial duties despite his many other interests.

The Duke told reporters he planned to visit the Turner Valley oil fields a few miles northeast of the ranch, and that he plans to take the Duchess for a drive around Calgary and perhaps visit neighboring ranchers. He said they hoped to visit Mrs. M. E. Baines' "Indian store" at Pekisko and perhaps do some shooting on the range.

The Duke and Duchess were presented with a buffalo robe from the Western Stock Growers' Association. Senator Dan Ryley of High River and Kenneth Coppock of Calgary, manager of the association, made the presentation to the Duke, an honorary member of the stock growers' association.

Senator Ryley said the Duchess' first remarks were "did you ever see such a beautiful rug." He said she was going to use it to "cover her knees at New York."

FORGETS CLOTHES

The Duchess, considered one of the world's best-dressed women, said she hasn't even thought about clothes for more than two years. She has been much too busy with Red Cross work and infant clinics.

"I don't think we've had much time for fashion and that sort of thing since the war, do you?" she remarked to reporters clustered around her.

"I'm afraid we are going to be difficult subjects, because we haven't been doing anything interesting, really. We have just been looking around the ranch," she added.

The ranch, she thinks, is "absolutely lovely. I have been trying to get acquainted with all the cattle. It's simply lovely country, and we have had lots of lovely walks." She said that she had not been riding yet, and added: "I don't think I'll react very well to the stocksaddle."

Icelanders Astonished

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—Men from the banks of the Tyne, men from Durham, men from Sunderland, Leeds and Birmingham are serving anti-aircraft guns which keep watch 24 hours daily in fair weather and foul over Iceland's growing defences and air fields. Their task is one of the toughest jobs on the island.

I visited one of the positions, 50 miles from the capital. After a two-hour trip over incredibly rough roads we reached the gun section which commanded one of the Iceland's most important targets.

They haven't had any action since arrival, but they're surprised keen.

The day I was there the section was finishing up its football tournament. The teams were battling on a field about half the size of a regulation one, to the accompaniment of a running fire of comment from the rest of the section.

A young lieutenant said there was "a good deal of betting on the game and plenty of conversation."

The gunners were playing in their undershirts, despite a keen breeze which kept the spectators wrapped in heavy sheepskin-lined coats.

Out in the country the troops and natives get along wonderfully well. "They're good people underneath, you know," said a gunner who was a garage mechanic in Birmingham before the war. "They're sort of astonished by having us here, but they're a kindly folk. They like to hear the boys sing, though that's more than I do."

Biggest event in their lives in Iceland was Prime Minister Churchill's arrival. An Irish sergeant said he had been down for supplies with some men when one told him that Mr. Churchill was walking along the dock.

"I thought he was trying to kid me and I told him off," he said. "Then I turned around and glory be, there he was. We took off our caps."

At another section near Reykjavik the men who serve Britain are bosom friends of United States seamen from nearby warships. The Americans invite them aboard in groups of 25 or so to eat and see movies. The British marvel at the amount of ice cream consumed by the American bluejackets, and do pretty well at it themselves now.

Canada Gives More Than U.S.

MONTREAL (CP)—The monthly letter of the Royal Bank of Canada reviews Canada's war effort in a reply to persons in the United States who have alleged Canada is paid "on the barrel-head" for her aid to Great Britain, and who have criticized her manner of raising armed forces.

The letter says that in the United States many features of the Dominion's war effort have, "through ignorance or mendacity," been misrepresented.

Dealing with the "barrel-head" charge the letter says Canadians have provided Great Britain with about three-quarters of the Canadian dollars she has so far needed to purchase her war supplies in Canada and that they will finance the bulk of Britain's expenditures in Canada.

"On September 15 it was officially announced actual deliveries by the United States up to August 31 under the Lease-Lend Act had a value of $325,000,000; expenditures for articles or services not yet completed had an additional value of $162,000,000, making $487,000,000 in all," the letter said.

"It is perfectly clear from official statements that Canadian sales to Great Britain on open account, without, we believe, any more definite understanding regarding repayment than under lease-lend operations, have certainly greatly exceeded total deliveries to date from the United States."

Favors All News Coming to Canada

LONDON (CP)—The News Chronicle, lending editorial backing to the appeal of D. B. Rogers of Regina on Tuesday to the British authorities to tell Canada the whole truth about the war, today said, "We in this country should take these words to heart."

Noting the visiting party of Canadian newspaper representatives had "spoken frankly of their desire for the full facts... subject always to the usual defence precautions," the newspaper says "they ask for the whole truth, good or bad."

"They say Canada can take bad news—indeed has become used to bad news—and that bad news is more likely to stimulate the effort in the Dominions than any attempt to gloss over unpalatable facts."

"We in this country should take their words to heart. In the past there have been occasions when facts and facilities for obtaining facts have been withheld because of the supposed effect of reverses on opinion and effort abroad."

"This attempt at subtlety is dangerous and deplorable. There can be but one rule for us: To give out all the news—good, bad or indifferent—so long as nothing

The 'Hall Mark'

MR. CHURCHILL OBTAINED A UNANIMOUS vote of confidence in the House of Commons today on the government's decision "to welcome the Russian nation as an ally in the struggle against aggressive barbarism, and fortify their resistance by every possible means." And immediately afterward a meeting of the Conservative Party of Great Britain heartily endorsed the resolution approved by the elected representatives of the people. Moving the party motion, Sir Cuthbert Headlam enjoined his colleagues to "realize that the Russians are fighting in a most heroic manner for their country, for the defence of Holy Russia, and not in defence of Marxian doctrines. . . . We should be foolish if we did not realize that at present our interests and those of Russia are identical."

The Prime Minister, of course, made his position abundantly clear as soon as Hitler sent his war machine into the Soviet Union. He explained to the House of Commons and to the British people on June 23 that although he did not propose to "unsay" anything he had spoken about Communism in the past—he had fought it for 25 years—he reminded the public that ideological conflicts had paled into insignificance in the light of the diabolical action taken the day before by the German hierarchy. All that mattered to Mr. Churchill, and to the great majority of Britons, was that the enigma of Russia had disappeared; that the common enemy on its own volition had added another great nation to those resisting the aggression of Hitlerism.

But for weeks heads were shaken; an element in Britain, in Canada and in the United States found it difficult to swallow Mr. Churchill's announcement that British peoples must from that time forward regard Bolshevism as an ally of the fighting democracies. Even now the unimaginative voice is crying: "Let the armies of Hitler and Stalin fight it out to a finish and thereby rid the world of Communism." We may be safe in suggesting that the vote in the House of Commons today was more or less a formal repetition of the approval of a policy already unanimously acknowledged as honorable in all its aspects. It would have been most marked, however, if the party of which Mr. Churchill is the official leader had not immediately fixed its seal on the popular vote. Those who still roll their eyes to high heaven when Russia is mentioned should now sleep easier in their beds tonight.

Supplies for Russia

WHILE VARIOUS VITAL COMMODITIES are being sent to Russia from Britain and other parts of the Empire, to the United States is left the responsibility of providing most of the finished defence supplies and machinery which will enable the Soviet Union to expand production in the industrial organizations of Turkestan and the Urals. So far, Britain apparently is much more conscious than America of the sacrifices likely to be demanded of industry and the public during the coming winter. The London Economist stated the case bluntly in a recent issue:

"In absolute terms the German war effort is still well ahead of Britain's, even if the Empire and the United States are included. The proportion of Britain's total production which is going into the war effort, however, is rising toward the German level. But," soberly declares the Economist, "it will depend on a similar effort on the part of the United States if the democracies are to establish the superiority in absolute defence output necessary to victory." The same magazine then points out that where nearly 67 per cent of German industrial production is specifically defence material, the comparable percentage in Britain is still less than 45 per cent, while in the United States defence goods account for a bare 15 per cent of the total.

Washington has already ordered the speed-up. Serious news of further important territorial losses by Russia, unrestricted Axis warfare against lease-lend aid with more sinkings like the Sessa and the Steel Seafarer, and a renewal of Nazi air raids on Britain would emphasize the urgency.

Facts and Censorship

LONDON'S LIBERAL AND OUTSPOKEN News-Chronicle editorially applauds today the appeal of Mr. D. B. Rogers of the Regina Leader-Post, one of the party of Canadian newspapermen now on a visit to Britain, for his request that Canada be told the whole truth about the war; it contends that British officialdom should "take these words to heart," and adds:

"In the past there have been occasions when facts and facilities for obtaining facts have been withheld because of the supposed effect of reverses on opinion and effort abroad. This attempt at subtlety is dangerous and deplorable. There can be but one rule for us: To give out all the news—good, bad or indifferent—so long as nothing valuable is conveyed to the enemy. It is a simple rule, and one which, if faithfully observed, would substantially help our cause."

The luncheon at which Mr. Rogers spoke was presided over by Mr. Brendan Bracken, formerly Mr. Churchill's principal private secretary and recently appointed Minister of Information in succession to Rt. Hon. Alfred Duff Cooper. The M.O.I. minister, of course, is a realist with considerable newspaper experience—mainly in the financial realm—and his close association with his former chief, when a private member of the House of Commons and for more than a year as head of the government, has brought him into intimate touch with the press. He has frowned on much of the futile propaganda which emanated from the organization set up under the old regime, and, judged by recent reports, he has subjected the personnel of the department to a drastic weeding-out process. Eighteen months ago, for example, of nearly 1,000 officials in the Ministry of Information less than 70 had had practical newspaper experience, or were in the least familiar with publicity in its manifold forms.

As the News-Chronicle informs its readers, the Canadian newspaper representatives have "spoken frankly of their desire for the full facts . . . subject always to the usual defence precautions," and all they ask for is "the whole truth, good or bad." The final point the newspaper makes goes to the heart of the situation: "They say Canada can take bad news—indeed has become used to bad news—and that bad news is more likely to stimulate the effort in the Dominion than any attempt to gloss over unpalatable facts."

It is to be hoped the agency of the Canadian government which censors Canadian news will take full note of what Mr. Rogers has said and the opinion on his views expressed by the News-Chronicle. All that is needed at Ottawa is a capacity and willingness to understand the psychology of the Canadian people. Two years of censorship in this country has revealed a woeful lack of imagination. Our citizens, after all, are not in swaddling clothes.

Have a Heart, Mr. Louis

FOR THE 19TH TIME JOE LOUIS HAS successfully defended the world's heavyweight title. No fighter in his class to date has been able to inflict anything more serious than superficial damage on that part of his anatomy which it is legitimate to attack. Several challengers have given him a little trouble, caused him on occasion, perhaps, to change his ring tactics. But he has invariably pranced up to the microphone with a modest message to his friends and the fistic world in particular.

The encounter with Lou Nova on Monday night was no exception to the general rule—despite those prognosticators among the "experts" who had a sneaking idea that Joe might meet the surprise of his young life. But it was an easier job than usual. Nothing in the six rounds the battle required has been found of sufficient interest to the film distributors to warrant the showing of the pictorial record. They tell us the pictures reveal a "dull" show. Is it too much to hope, then, that as Mr. Louis dons the uniform of Uncle Sam he will gracefully retire the undefeated champion and leave the field for some other "hope" in the pugilistic world? He is a comparatively wealthy young man; but this frequent defence of a title which appears to be beyond the reach of any other challenger at the moment must have begun to pall even on those thousands of devotees of the fistic art who know the answer at the first bell.

Please, Joseph, give somebody else a chance; pair up with Mr. Tunney, another undefeated heavyweight champion, and take the occasional bow from the "squared circle" without the habiliments of the trade in which you have so distinguished yourself. You are a credit to your race, a fighter who has played the game with meticulous regard for all its proprieties and rules, and you can take full credit for your achievements.

An article says some boys in the army are dissatisfied. All right; show us some not in the army who are satisfied.

MR. BAXTER ADVISES CANADA

From Vancouver Sun
Mr. Beverley Baxter, an able journalist who made his reputation as the apologist for the Baldwin and Chamberlain governments, is touring Canada to tell Canadians their duty in the war.

He was wrong about many things in the world situation before the war and must bear his share of responsibility for lulling Canada into a false sense of security, through his writings in this country. This, however, does not mean that he is wrong now. He says Canada should adopt conscription, and perhaps we shall have to do so. His reasoning, however, is curious, for he says that conscription is necessary to assure democracy in our war effort. In Britain, he says, dukes are in the army with working men. There are no dukes in Canada and our army is the most democratic in the world, officers being forced to come up from the ranks.

Conscription, if it comes here, will come because we have reached the end of our manpower supplies and can not distribute them satisfactorily between the fighting forces and industry without compulsion. To be useful, conscription must have the mass support of the Canadian people and, if it is necessary, we believe it will have that support.

But we do not think that Mr. Baxter or any visitor makes the problem any easier by lecturing us on our duty. The next effect of Mr. Baxter's tour, judging by the press across the country, is to raise antagonisms, to renew memories of his constantly bad advice to us in the past. With his brilliance he could have done much good in Canada. We fear he has not.

LET 'EM HAVE IT

THE WOMEN OF ENGLAND, led by such valiant figures as Lady Astor, are demanding the right to careers in the diplomatic service. They should be given what they want. I am inclined to think, indeed, that the whole diplomatic service should be turned over to them.

What you need in diplomacy is toughness of spirit, and women are infinitely tougher than men. If women had been managing our diplomacy in the last few years doubtless we should not be in our present mess. If Hitler had been compelled to face an angry woman at Berchtesgaden he would have wilted on the spot. Even a married man, experienced in such contests, would have been overcome. What chance would a bachelor have?

And if Hitler could out-shout a woman, which I very much doubt, who could resist the final weapon in the feminine arsenal, the deadly weapon of tears, which should be barred by international law and yet still is loose in the world, wreaking havoc everywhere. No man has ever been known who could resist a woman sobbing over the end of a sofa. At such times the tenderest-hearted man feels like a brute and immediately gives the woman what she wants and more—anything to stop her crying.

MEN DON'T KNOW

IN THE OTHER ARTS of government women would probably do better than men also. Certainly in finance. If women had been running British Columbia since 1912 we should not have started without a debt then and ended with our present fantastic interest payments. Men, after all, know little of money because, in their ordinary lives, they see so little of it. Most of the money of North America is spent by women, who allow their husbands a few pennies for cigarettes and car fare.

What the women have been able to do on small wages and salaries is beyond the understanding of a male mind. Men have made their reputation as financiers by a process of economics which has bankrupted the world. The great financiers finally produced chaos, but their reputation still is undimmed because they can still spend money. If you can spend money you are always regarded as a great financier, a government which spends freely is always popular and a finance minister with a huge budget is regarded as a prodigy of wisdom, as if it were a difficult thing to waste the funds of other people. A woman, on the other hand, has no reputation in financial matters because she manages to save money out of a very small amount of it. A finance minister who ruins a nation or a province is regarded as a great man. A housewife who saves a family is generally thought ignorant.

CORRUPTION

THE TROUBLE with such women, when they enter politics, is that they are contaminated by the company of men. They get into men's bad habits, into extravagance and into theory. They are no longer content to use the knowledge and experience gauged in the spending of $100 a month on a family of six. They think that some other principle must be applied to the spending of a hundred millions on the family of the nation. Before long you find that a woman in the Legislature or the House of Commons is very much like a man, hardly any better and only a little more intelligent.

If we want to gain the advantages of woman's superior ability, we must take her complete and undiluted. We must turn our governments over to her entirely, free from the corruption of male society. I am in favor of such a program, to be undertaken immediately. And why the present politicians are not in favor of it I cannot understand. With all the misery of political life today, with all the heartlessness of the electorate, with all the responsibilities of office and the ingratitude of colleagues, it is a wonder that men don't hand the job over to women and retire to the country and grow cabbages, which I did long ago. Let women have the government. Let them take it and keep it.

After a lesson on the gods and goddesses of olden days, the schoolmaster began asking a few questions.

"Now, who was Bacchus?"
Answer was there none! So he tried again.

"Come, come. Mars was the god of war, Venus was the goddess of love, Bacchus was the god of—?" he paused invitingly.

"Bookmakers?" suggested one bright lad.
Here is a new definition of the Londoner—a man who hopes for the best and prepares for the worst.

SOLILOQUY

This moonlight—lilac-scented—
With shadows, still and deep;
This wayward breeze that softly sways
The blossoms all to sleep.

This night, so filled with the mystery
Of life, and the constancy of love,
Ascending from the fragrant earth
To the starlit skies above.

Can it be that across the seas,
In lands where war is rife,
The moonlight is stench with arid smoke
And the shadows hide death—not life?

That the breeze caresses broken trees,
And sobs of the sleep that is lost?
That the night is filled with intrigue and hate,
And the fear of borders crossed?

How sad that such a thing is so!
That this world is torn apart.
How many, many years 'till take
To heal its bleeding heart!

ADMITS HE IS GOOD

ONE OF THE KEYS to the successful career of Arthur Beverley Baxter is not only that as a journalist he is good—but that he admits he is good.

When Mr. Baxter was writing in Maclean's Magazine about the Ministry of Information, and its weaknesses, he was frank to admit that he knew the identity of the man who would make it an outstanding success. Let there be any doubt as to his meaning he added that the man for the job was Arthur Beverley Baxter.

Mr. Churchill did not see eye to eye with Mr. Baxter on that subject. However, there is nothing surprising in that. It was less than three years ago, when Baxter was lambasting Churchill all over the lot for his attacks on the Chamberlain sloth, that the journalist remarked that Churchill couldn't pick a winner from a stable of only one horse.

As a matter of record, Baxter was against Churchill and Eden in all the tragic years between 1935 and 1940. His current pronouncements, however, are really important because his sentiments are no doubt those of the ex-Chamberlain faction of the Conservative party which still commands the real majority in Parliament.

NEXT TO SUPERMAN

Matt Halton, of the Toronto Star, was appalled to find on his return to Canada that Baxter undoubtedly had the largest reader following of anyone writing for the Canadian public. He was appalled, because Baxter was one of those who denied, until the very last moment, the facts about the Nazi menace which almost literally stared one in the face.

Yet no one could deny that Baxter is a great journalist, if only for the reason that his craftsmanship itself is superb. He knows, as do all other newspapermen, that the memory of the public is short. Happily for all of us, the cares and interests of today wipe out the memory of the journalists' mistakes of yesterday. The public is short on memory and long on charity—

PIONEER NEWSPAPER

From Winnipeg Tribune
One of Manitoba's pioneer newspapers marked the end of 50 years of publication last week. It was the Birle Eye-Witness. This in itself is a record established by few other weeklies in a community so new as Manitoba. However, this occasion is made more remarkable by the fact that the original editor, E. J. Wilson, is still actively engaged in its publication.

Mr. Wilson and his partner brought out the first issue of the Eye-Witness on September 17, 1891. Their territory then extended from the Canadian Pacific Railway to Riding Mountain and from Shoal Lake to Yorkton. Now, 12 weekly newspapers serve the same area.

In its 50 years of publication, the Eye-Witness has served its community well and the Tribune hopes that it will be given many more years in which to record the doings of its neighbors.

SUBSTITUTE FOR TOBACCO

Pipe-smoker Sir Stephen Talents, faced with Britain's wartime tobacco shortage, started a lively flood of press suggestions for substitutes with a more or less frantic letter to The Times, London.

"Pipe tobacco is none too plentiful nowadays and briars are in short supply," wrote Sir Stephen, who is a BBC controller of overseas programs. "Can I persuade your readers to pool any experience they may have of home-grown substitutes for either?"

Sir Stephen reported experimenting with watercress and lavender and although his results were "instructive rather than alluring either to the smoker or those about him" he hoped to devise "some more tolerable blend" before winter.

Proposals for substitutes were quick to follow. Within two days The Times printed a list of correspondents' suggestions—including raspberry leaves, sun-dried leaves of chrysanthemum and coltsfoot, a common English weed. But there was one "sour" note. E. P. Hart wrote: "For the problems of tobacco addicts there is a simple and satisfactory solution—to give up smoking."

"Any wide-scale experiment with such substitutes (as weeds) may make the top of a bus a somewhat exciting place for a sensitive nose," the Manchester Guardian editorialized. "If it does not produce instant asphyxiation or hay fever there will be fine room for speculation on who is smoking lavender or dockleaves and who has pinned his faith to watercress or sycamore leaves."

SLEPT ON ANCIENT GRAVES

From Woodstock Sentinel-Review
It's hard to get these returned men to talk, but once in a while they loosen up.

It seems that three sergeant-majors of the Canadian tank outfit while in London some weeks ago ran into a rather sharp air raid. Two shelters in succession were found to be full, but admittance was gained to the crypt of a church, where the sexton collected sixpence and issued a blanket to each man. The place was full of bats and definitely not air-conditioned, but eventually the Canadians fell asleep on slabs which they located in the dark.

In the morning, one stretched his stiff limbs, folded his blanket and examined the stone slab which had been in couch. It bore an inscription to the effect that thereunder lay the body of Mary Jane Brown, departed this life in 1690.

A.D. 1690 was a fairly exciting year, what with King William landing at Torbay and all that sort of thing, but if Mary Jane's ghost still inhabits that crypt it will probably reckon as worthy of note the night in 1941 when the Canadians dropped in.

Conservatory Club Chooses Officers

Miss Gwendoline Harper was re-elected president of the Toronto Conservatory Club at the annual meeting Tuesday evening, held at the home of Mrs. George Phillips, 430 St. Patrick Street. Other officers are: Vice-president, Leslie Bott; secretary, Miss Noel Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Barry Gault; program convener, Mrs. C. S. Beals; historian, Mrs. T. W. A. Gray; and additional executive member, Mrs. George Phillips.

The club has affiliated with the alumni at Toronto, and from now on the organization will be known as the Toronto Conservatory of Music Alumnae, Victoria Chapter.

The president in her annual review spoke of the reception for Sir Ernest MacMillan as the highlight of the year. The secretary, Miss Noel Smith; the retiring treasurer, Mrs. Beals, and others also gave short reports.

The proceedings closed with a social hour during which Miss Peggy Walton, accompanied by Miss Rita Nevard, gave a delightful vocal group including Faure's "Après une Réve," Rachmaninoff's "The Island," and the negro spiritual, "Heaven, Heaven," arranged by Harry Burleigh. The hostess served refreshments.

The W.A. to 11th Fortress Signal Co. R.C.C.S., will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hadfield, 2690 Cadboro Bay Road, Friday night at 8.

WEDDINGS

SCOTT—GREEN

Autumn flowers were arranged by girl friends of the bride in St. Mark's Church for the marriage last evening at 8.30 of Gladys Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Green, 982 Darwin Road, to Walter Scott, only son of Mrs. Lucy Scott, Royal Oak, and the late Mr. James Scott. Rev. O. L. Jull conducted the ceremony, and while the register was being signed Miss Enid Middleton sang the solo, "Through the Years."

Mr. Green gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a dress-maker suit of beige boucle, with a black velvet hat, with veil trim, and black accessories. She carried a beige prayer book and wore a corsage bouquet of orchids. Mrs. F. L. Kitto of Ladysmith, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a dress of burgundy crepe with white Peter Pan collar, a burgundy felt hat, with a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Albert Massey was best man and Messrs. Frederick and Brodie Quick were ushers.

At the reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Green received the many guests in an aquamarine blue crepe jacket dress, with black accessories, assisted by Mrs. Scott in a dress of burgundy crepe, with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of Talisman roses.

The young couple stood beneath an arch of pink and white flowers. The bride's table was arranged with the three-tiered cake, with silver baskets of pink and white asters, and matching tapers in crystal holders. During the reception Mrs. S. Dawe sang "In the Garden of Your Heart."

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kitto and family, Ladysmith; Flight-Lieut. C. Goodwright and Mrs. Goodwright, Abingdon, Berks, England; Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Tait and Miss G. Tait, Vancouver; Miss M. Tait, Revelstoke, and Mr. David Green, Chilliwack.

For the honeymoon trip to Vancouver and the interior, the bride donned a black boucle coat, with Russian sable trim, over her wedding outfit. They will make their home at Alderley Road, Royal Oak, on their return.

MURRAY—ROBERTS

Reverend Father Roland Roberts, S.F.M., announces the marriage of his sister, Catherine Mary, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Victoria, to Mr. William Murray, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Murray, Prince Rupert, B.C. The marriage took place on February 25, 1941, in the sacristy of Saint Andrew's Cathedral, Father Roberts officiating. They were attended by Mrs. H. Moore and Mr. V. Montaldi. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will at present reside at Loretta Hall, 309 Belleville Street, Victoria.

60,000 Children in Junior Red Cross

The tremendous growth of the Junior Red Cross in the province was described by Miss Margaret Manson of Vancouver, provincial organizer, at a meeting held Wednesday of Victoria and district teacher-directors working with Junior Red Cross groups in the schools. Miss Violet Wilson, who is convener of Victoria and district activities, presided.

Miss Manson noted that the Junior Red Cross membership had doubled during the last year, now reaching a total of 60,000 children, and their enthusiasm was boundless. Samples of the excellent work done and of the supplies available were on display. The meeting was especially interested in the sample shown of the quilts which the China Relief Committee make from old socks, and it was suggested that the Junior Red Cross might well copy the idea to make quilts for Britain.

Lady (Richard) Lake was appointed convener of the Junior Red Cross workshop at the local Red Cross headquarters, the rooms to be open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturday mornings for the distribution of materials to the junior branches.

The W.A. to the Elks met recently, the president, Mrs. C. V. Milton, in the chair. The members thanked the chairman of the entertainment committee for her hard work and for the success of the entertainments, which netted a good sum for the Solarium fund. Mr. A. McCrimmon guessed the weight of the pumpkin, which was 23½ lbs. The date of the next dance will be announced later.

Mr. Arthur Hoadley Mitchell and his bride, the former Ruth Antoinette Horton, caught by The Times cameraman outside the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Horton, The Uplands, where the reception was held yesterday, following the wedding at St. Mary's Church.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Lilian Foster of Medicine Hat has arrived from Alberta and is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. McCarter, Summit Avenue.

Mrs. F. E. Winslow, Craigdarroch, will leave for Vancouver tonight to meet her daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. T. Winslow, wife of Captain Edward T. Winslow, R.C.A., who will arrive tomorrow morning from England. They will return to Victoria Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Neuman, Saanich Road, have staying with their niece, Miss Bernice Bastion of Pincher Creek, Alta., who will be bridesmaid this evening at the marriage of her cousin, Miss M. Neuman, to Gr. R. C. Gonnason, at Grace Lutheran Church.

Mrs. B. F. Gummow of Peachland, who, as president of the British Columbia Women's Institutes is here for the two-day conference of the South Island District W.I., is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, King George Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Pinhorn, Forrester Street, who have been visiting at Harrison Hot Springs, have returned home. Their son, Lieut. V. G. Pinhorn, who was with them at Harrison, went on to the Flying-U Ranch, Seventy Mile House, Cariboo, and will return to Victoria on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Simpson entertained at a dinner party at their home, 1438 Beach Drive, Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Aileen Cosgrave Robertson and her fiancé, Mr. William Arthur Johnston, whose marriage will take place Tuesday, October 7, at 8 p.m. at St. John's Church, instead of October 14, as originally planned. Covers were laid at a prettily-appointed table centred with flowers.

On Tuesday evening a miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hornsby, 1320 Johnson Street, in honor of Miss Sophie Yurchuk, bride-elect. On arrival she was placed "under arrest," charged with being late, handcuffed with floral handcuffs and "sentenced" to spend the rest of her life as the wife of Constable Hornsby, Port Alberni, sentence to start October 15. As a compliment to the prospective groom, the gifts were presented in a miniature police patrol. During the evening games were enjoyed, winners being Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. D. Green, Mrs. G. Pears and Miss R. Foster. Refreshments were served from a supper table centred with a bowl of yellow chrysanthemums. Those present included: Mesdames G. Exton, W. Menzies, L. Hornsby, J. Durell, A. Green Sr., A. Campbell, C. Carter, J. McDonald, R. Green, E. Merryfield, C. Foot, G. Smith, D. Green, R. Hornsby, E. Johnson, G. Pears, F. McDonald, F. Hornsby, A. Girardau, R. Foster, A. Hornsby, and the Misses F. Smith, D. Exton, R. Foster, B. Foster, E. Foster and N. Henry.

Mr. John C. Dick of Duncan, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Colin Young, Birch Street, returned home today.

Mrs. Gerald Rushton of Vancouver, who has been visiting Mrs. Fred Spencer, Beach Drive, has returned to the mainland.

Mrs. G. N. Joyce and Miss Dorothy Joyce entertained at a miscellaneous shower at their home, 2534 Quadra Street, in honor of Miss Rosalie Butler, an October bride-to-be. On arrival the guest of honor was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations. The many gifts were concealed in a pink and blue basket topped by a miniature bride. During the evening, games were enjoyed, Miss Evelyn McLuhan being the winner. A buffet supper was served. The invited guests were: Mesdames S. Joyce, C. House, Jack McKenzie, S. House, J. McLuhan, Fred Rawlings, G. Thomas, E. Crossley, W. White, J. Bayliss, and the Misses Maude House, Lucy Edge, Mina Joyce, Violet Thomas and Margaret, Evelyn, and Doris McLuhan.

Mrs. E. Meads and Mrs. J. Locke were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower given at the former's home, 592 Carden Street, Tuesday in compliment to Miss Frances Cownden, a much-feted October bride-to-be. On her arrival she was presented with a corsage bouquet of red rosebuds, and many prettily-wrapped gifts. An evening of games was enjoyed, the winners being Mrs. Arthur Cownden and Mrs. Albert Cownden. A buffet supper was served later by the hostesses. The guests were Mesdames A. Cownden Sr., C. Seeds, Arthur Cownden Jr., A. Gardner, Albert Cownden Jr., and Misses Isobel Gilroy, Doreen King, Vera Rooney, Ida Casilio, Kay Burner, Patricia Walsh, Mary Grant, Molly Tams, Mona Garrett, Kay Jones and Florence Pick.

Mrs. J. H. Gibson and Mrs. P. W. Cornock entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. W. Cornock, 1715 Stanley Avenue, in honor of Miss Margaret McAllister, whose marriage to Mr. Norman Barton will take place on Saturday. The bride-to-be entered the room to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss N. Martin, and was presented with a corsage of red and white carnations. The many useful gifts were concealed in a red, white and blue container. On top was a small battleship with a sailor and his bride. The evening was spent playing games, after which refreshments were served from a lace covered table, decorated with red and white streamers. Mrs. J. Flannigan and Mrs. J. McAllister poured the tea and coffee. Mrs. B. Acreman and Mrs. H. Deane assisted the hostesses. Other invited guests were Mesdames J. Michael, J. B. Clark, B. Davidson, T. Smith, C. Mathews, J. Hedley and J. Hudson, and the Misses M. Whiteford, E. Philpott, McAllister, D. Bat-trick, E. Martin and G. Martin.

Institutes Urge Release Of More Eggs to Britain

Housewives of Canada will be urged to buy eggs for home consumption by the pound, to avoid the work of grading them, and thus help to ensure adequate supplies being shipped to Great Britain, if the Women's Institutes have their way.

At the meeting of the provincial board of the Women's Institutes of British Columbia held Wednesday a resolution was passed urging upon the provincial and federal governments to take every step possible to help the poultry producers fulfill Canada's contract with Great Britain to supply 1,000,000 cases, each containing 30 dozen eggs, weighing 45 pounds or more, for shipment overseas during the ensuing year. They also will urge that all assistance be given the poultry producers to supply a greater quantity if needed.

STORAGE PROBLEM

They will also ask that the provincial and federal governments make every provision possible to assume the responsibility for the production, processing, marketing and shipping of fresh and storage eggs. These will be shipped weekly so that Great Britain will be relieved of unnecessary storage problems due to war conditions and Canadian shell eggs will go directly into consumption in the British Isles.

The Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, which has a membership of approximately 75,000, will be asked to co-operate by advocating that eggs for home consumption be purchased by the pound, to do away with the work of grading them.

The board met yesterday in Mrs. V. S. McLachlan's office at the Parliament Buildings. Mrs. B. F. Gummow, Peachland, president, in the chair. Other board members present were Mrs. T. Hartnell of Shearerdale, Peace River district; Mrs. K. Popoff, Slooan City; Mrs. V. N. Robinson, Penticton, and Mrs. J. F. Price, Vancouver.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Several resolutions were discussed, among them being one dealing with old-age pensions and it was decided to approach the Dominion Minister of Pensions and Health urging that old-age pensions be raised to meet the present high cost of living needs. This would entail the amendment of the present act, which the members deemed advisable.

The fund for assisting with the purchase of a mobile kitchen and ambulance for use in Great Britain now being closed, it was agreed that an effort be made to raise further funds to help the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada in their project for purchasing equipment, this money to be raised by means of a 10 cents per capita levy.

LONDON REPRESENTATIVE

The board voted that Miss Lot-tie Bowron be asked to continue as representative of the British Columbia Women's Institutes in London on the Associated Countrywomen of the World executive.

Discussion also centred round the rules of a menu contest proposed by Mrs. H. H. Bryant of Courtenay, for which she will award two prizes for the best collection of four season menus based on "Foods for Home Defence." Dr. G. F. Amyot will be asked to judge the contest.

When the weather changes suddenly, New York's telephone weather report service sometimes gets 4,200 calls in half an hour.

CATHEDRAL A.Y.P.A.

Christ Church Cathedral senior branch of the A.Y.P.A. recently held a business meeting and whilst drive. Miss Pauline Havard was introduced as a new member. Irene Webb, Nora Garcin and Clive Hoskins were elected branch delegates to the B.C. Conference in Vancouver, October 11, 12 and 13.

METCHOSIN

A harvest supper and entertainment in connection with St. Mary's Church, Metchoshin, will be held on October 8 in the Community Hall. Bishop Sexton will speak. Pictures of bomb-stricken parts of England will be shown by Mrs. H. S. Hurn.

Social and Personal

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. W. C. Woodward will leave tonight for Vancouver to fulfill a series of engagements, and expect to return to Government House early next week.

A group of Portlanders who have arrived from Oregon to spend a few days at the Empress Hotel include Mrs. E. S. Davis, Mrs. H. B. Olsen, Mrs. Wm. O'Connell, Mrs. N. C. Mayo and Miss Lucille Esterbrook.

Miss Lora Blake, who was appointed some years ago as secretary to Dr. J. S. Plaskett, C.B.E., F.R.S., director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, has retired from the staff of the observatory. Miss Blake, who is visiting relatives in Ottawa, expects to return to Victoria about the end of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Eccleston of Beverly Hills, California, who have been guests at the Empress Hotel for the past three months, are now returning by automobile to their home in California. It has been the custom of Mr. and Mrs. Eccleston for many years to spend the summer months in Victoria.

In honor of Miss Grace Easton, whose marriage will take place this month, Miss Gwen Ramsay, 1232 Oscar Street, entertained at a tea and kitchen shower recently. The bride-to-be was presented with a corsage bouquet of white chrysanthemums and also received a box decorated with pink and mauve, containing the many useful gifts. Pink and white asters and pink and mauve streamers decorated the living room. The tea table, over which Miss Evelyn Ramsay, sister of the hostess presided, was arranged with flowers in the same shades. The guests were Mrs. R. Cliff, Mrs. H. McAlpine, Mrs. N. Lanning and the Misses "Joey" McAnerin, Hilda Barnes, Marguerite English, Mildren Smellie, Carla Carter, Margaret James, Kay Easton, Stella Atchison and Gladys James.

Approximately 300 articles were received for the Red Cross Superfluties Shop at the shower held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lennox Irving, Foul Bay Road. The affair was arranged by the staff of the store, and among the gifts donated by the guests were valuable antiques, silver, china, jewelry, pictures and furniture. Mrs. J. G. Austin and Mrs. A. H. Pease presided at the prettily-arranged tea table. Members of the Superfluties Shop committee present were: Brig-Gen. and Mrs. J. G. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. M. Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. R. Cawley, and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Clark.

Miss Gwen Walker, whose marriage to Mr. John Dunn, R.C.N., will take place early in November, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. J. Smirl, 1245 Vista Heights. On her arrival the guest of honor was presented with a corsage bouquet of Tailsman rosebuds. The gifts were concealed in a huge gold and green acorn, and the reception rooms were decorated with bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Games parcel on his departure. The members discussed plans for a rummage sale in the near future. Many knitted articles were turned in to the wool convener. A vote of thanks was tendered to Lt.-Col. McKenna and the 5th Regiment orchestra for their co-operation and assistance at the dance. Mrs. Kent received a standing vote of thanks for her convenship.

Anniversary Tea
Had Chinese Motif

The Sunday school room of Metropolitan United Church was decorated with flowers, candles and Chinese lanterns by Mrs. R. Crozier Smith and Mrs. R. Hetherington, Wednesday, on the occasion of the W.M.S. annual guest tea, all the other organizations of the church taking part, under the general convenship of Mrs. W. L. Smith.

Mrs. W. H. Muncy, W.M.S. president, and Mrs. A. E. Whitehouse received the guests. Mrs. Muncy in her opening talk recalled it was 50 years, almost to the day, since the first Canadian missionaries went to West China. She also expressed her appreciation of the co-operation of the sister societies.

The program, convened by Mrs. R. Crozier Smith, included solos by Mrs. F. Leech from Centennial Church, and by Miss Bessie Hope, who sang Chinese poems set to music by modern composers; a piano solo by Miss Marion Lowe, and a piano duet by the Misses Beverley Cave and Maureen Riddle. Mr. Mun Hope repeated, by request, his speech which won the cup at the oratorical contest sponsored by the Times. He also gave an account of his trip to the Youtths' Conference at Amsterdam. Mrs. W. Milburn was accompanist.

The W.M.S. table, appropriately decorated to carry out the Chinese motif, was centred with an exquisite piece of Chinese carving on walrus tusk, and red and yellow pompon dahlias in vases from China. The committee in charge was: Mrs. A. Sullivan, convener; Mrs. H. E. English, Mrs. W. Gilliland, Mrs. W. Wharton, Mrs. F. T. Cliffe and Mrs. W. H. Whitely. Pourers were Mrs. Joseph Wong and Mrs. Tong-Yen.

The W.A. table had a centre-piece of yellow and mauve flowers with autumn leaves and amber glass. Mrs. W. H. Harte was convener, assisted by Mrs. A. Curtis, Mrs. Stewart Smith, Miss F. Bailey and Mrs. T. Adams. Mrs. A. E. Whitehouse, Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. J. T. Williams were the pourers.

The Flower Guild used an embroidered Chinese cloth, centred with a Chinese garden with red and white cherry trees around a lake, watched over by Chinese gods. An embroidered Chinese tablecloth almost entirely covered the large table. Mrs. J. Cullum, Mrs. R. Hetherington, Mrs. A. Parfitt, Mrs. T. Berry and Mrs. W. Burley were in charge. Mrs. H. J. Pendray and Mrs. E. W. Whittington presided.

The choir and Sunday school had as joint conveners Mrs. W. Milburn and Mrs. H. G. Shepherd, assisted by Mrs. H. P. Brown, Mrs. Fowler, and the Misses Helen Robinson and Jean Adams. The pourers were Mrs. G. Robinson and Mrs. F. Tupman. The centre-piece of this table was of white chrysanthemums and Chinese figurines. The Misses Marion Lowe, Laura Mah, Dora Hope and Mae Wong assisted in the serving, wearing Chinese costumes.

A vote of thanks was extended by Mrs. W. L. Smith to all who had contributed towards making this an outstanding success of the season.

The adolescent study group of Sir James Douglas P.T.A. will meet Monday, October 6, at 2.30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bracewell, 544 Cornwall Street. New members will be welcomed.

Englishwomen Buy Woolen Dresses

LONDON (CP)—Outstanding among clothes Englishwomen are buying with their 66 clothes rationing coupons are tailored wool dresses for winter-into-spring wear.

Made with bloused sleeves, yoked back with soft fullness below and close throattines, they are in featherweight tweeds, worsteds or flannels all of which are still available though the supply shortens daily owing to the demands of the export trade. Diagonal twill weaves are popular and considerable designing interests goes into the buttons and belts.

The average coat being bought by Englishwomen, who have to consider country home life before town life, because they are in the country more than in town, remains loose and easy. Pockets are outside, because they have to take with them forms and ration books, identity cards, shopping lists and leave hands free for parcels. The batwing sleeve has had a slow acceptance in dresses but is increasing in coats, where it is regarded as practical. Coat skirts have a slight flare, usually have fullness drawn in under a

Letters to the Editor

TO GERMANS, TOO?

The very clever defence of the Italian people by your correspondent, Frank P. Shute, applies also to the German people.

Is he implying that we should cease fighting Italy and, if so, does he wish his argument applied also to Germany?

STELLA M. JENNINGS.
1326 Bond Street.

SIN, A FALLACY

I was struck with G. E. Altree Coley's letter, headed, "Never Until," which quotes "Thou art to build the Kingdom of God upon earth."

The Kingdom of Heaven is not something you build, it is assuredly something you inherit—something you are—something you express. We do not need to build it, it is already built.

What we have to do is to grasp it in understanding. "With all thy heart get understanding" if you would know the Kingdom of Heaven.

As to sin, so called, the writer is not afraid to say, absolutely: Sin, so-called, is a fallacy!

What mankind is so fond of calling "sin," is nothing more nor less than experience. An "inexperienced" man can never inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

SANDWICH BOARDS AND TRAFFIC

It would be interesting to know what the local laws are regarding obstruction of the sidewalks.

There is always a certain amount of congestion around the entrance to Spencers on Douglas Street, and this has been considerably accentuated, the last few days, by a man carrying outside sandwich boards, greatly to the inconvenience of pedestrians.

The regulations governing street advertising vary in different cities, but in most it is forbidden to carry sandwich boards on the sidewalk, and the dimensions of the boards are strictly controlled.

Presumably, Victoria being the well-run city that it is, has some such regulations to control this nuisance.

PROFITTEERING?

LONDON (RUP)—The Ministry of Food has obtained convictions in 22,356 cases of offences against... selfish traders deliberately making excessive profits. Because of this the Ministry of Food will put the crooked dealer out of business by revoking his license.

How about a cup of coffee here in Victoria jumped up to 10 cents a cup? Any housewife will tell you that 2 to 3 cents a cup would be plenty for the actual cost.

There are many here who have done their bit in the past and who are just getting by now and do not have big salaries and expensive clothes for looking ornamental. A petition is being signed on Island and the mainland against the restrictions of the marketing board which prevents many needy people from getting cheap vegetables from the growers and, it is said, causes enormous quantities of this food to be destroyed to keep the price up.

AIDING WAR EFFORT

The special privilege asked for by the real estate salesmen of Victoria and Vancouver in the matter of gasoline rationing must surely strike a responsive chord in every one who is interested in promoting the war effort.

While it is all very well for workmen and the wealthy to be asked to walk more and to give each other a lift when practicable, it would be unpatriotic to expect realtors to carry some of the real estate about (especially in Esquimalt and Saanich) on their shoes, the more so as all are asked to defer the buying of luxuries (shoes, etc.) for the duration.

This request for special privilege compares with the urgent call for war supplies to Britain, Russia and China, more especially medical and surgical supplies of all kinds. Latest news from China, for instance, reveals the frightful losses in human lives through lack of the bare necessities in the northern parts of China, due to embargo edicts from the central government, lack of transportation facilities, and other factors.

PRaise TO WHOM DUE

To everyone who had the privilege of co-operating with the Boy Scouts and Cubs last week on the aluminum drive came a great satisfaction from working with a group so keen on the job and so obviously wholehearted in the effort.

Everyone who has worked on any civic endeavor here knows that Victoria is one of the most difficult cities in which to arouse any enthusiasm, no matter how important or necessary the cause. There does, in fact, seem to be a class in this city which considers it undignified to be of use to the community. Therefore, the others who do more than their share deserve that much more praise.

ON DIFFERENT PLANES

It had not occurred to me that Mr. Sanders would be interested in my small "article" printed in the Times a short time ago under the heading "What's the Matter With the Churches." This was an answer to a similar query of Mrs. McClung's and both were intended to interest professed Christians. As he has referred to this article and also to a letter of mine in his latest letter I trust you will find room for my reply.

As to Evolution, I have no expectation of converting Mr. Sanders to my point of view and see little profit in conducting a discussion on the basis of endlessly matching quotation with quotation as can easily be done by either side in this controversy. But for the sake of clearness I would like to quote from a previous letter. "There is a view of evolution which recognizes that within the species or orders of creation, there has been and is, development. But to the general public, the term means that man has developed during the ages from the lowest forms of life until eventually he emerges from the ape class and becomes man. This is the view which Christians, as such, reject, for it is definitely at variance with the Bible. Nor do they insult their intelligence in rejecting it for it is not supported by any real evidence. Authorities can be quoted at length in support of this position but this means little to the general reader for it is equally possible to quote extensively against it."

Further, I maintain, as a clearly evident fact, that the evolutionist and the Christian think on different planes. Mr. Sanders' last letter is abundant proof of this. No Christian, and by this I mean one who believes in God and in His revelation of Himself to mankind in the Lord Jesus Christ and through the Bible, would speak in such terms.

Candid Cameraman Takes Shots As City Gives Party for English Airmen

By LAURA TYERMAN

"These lads come from every corner of the British Isles," said Group-Captain P. D. Robertson, A.M., officer commanding the R.A.F. station at Patricia Bay. He introduced young airmen from England to Victoria visitors when the civic entertainment committee took singers, magicians, comedians and actors to stage a party in honor of the lads from the other side of the Atlantic.

"In most cases, they have never been away from home before and they are still a little homesick. They have only been here for four weeks."

Whatever the reason, the R.A.F. members, to a man, want to talk about home.

"They will all be sleeping in the shelters every night now," mused Jock, resting for a few minutes from his all-important duties of satisfying the demands of the inner man.

"That is the trouble," commented Cpl. Cook C. W. Hall. "They brought us away over here, right out of the war, to this place where everything is peaceful and life quite normal and all our people are left over there to take it."

The remark by Hall, "We would rather be over there, taking the bombs. You feel more as if you were doing something over there," was followed by the judicious comment, "But this is a grand country, it is beautiful and we like it here." Hall, who left a wife in Rotherham, near Sheffield, was a grocer in civilian life.

Jock's home is in Edinburgh. "My name is David," Jock explained. "David Latham. But coming from Scotland, I have to answer to Jock. The shy grin evidenced Jock's good nature concerning the matter of names."

Jock was a butcher at home and a cook in the R.A.F. Jock likes cooking. No one could turn out sausage rolls that look as enticing or taste as delicious as Jock's if he didn't like cooking. And Jock's tea, "the way they make it in Scotland," is good tea. Cpl. Cook J. Corness of Liverpool was also a butcher before he joined the R.A.F. and L.A.C. L. A. Webb of Chingford, London, was a motor mechanic at home and now a cook for the R.A.F. A.C. J. F. Brown of the kitchen staff came from Manchester.

A.C. J. H. Hughes, who formerly was a commercial traveller, selling furniture, and L.A.C. A. E. Mock, both call Cardiff, Wales, home.

There are boys from Ireland at the Patricia Bay station as well as from England, Scotland and Wales. There is Sgt. L. J. Broly of Coleraine, County Derry, who joined the R.A.F. from school but whose brogue is much more understandable to the Canadian ear than that of A.C. W. Topping of Wigam, Lancashire or Clifford Claxton of Sheffield. Topping built air raid shelters before joining the R.A.F. If he is homesick you would never know. He has George Formby's tongue and sense of humor and Clark Gable's smile.

There are former newspapermen now stationed at Patricia Bay as well as factory workers and locomotive drivers. A.C. W. Beach was a sub-editor on a newspaper at Bradford, Yorkshire.

Cpl. S. Lott was on the staff of the advertising department of the Daily Telegraph, London.

Cpl. F. Stagg of London, worked in the factory of Oxo Limited.

A.C. C. E. Dove, Brighton, Sussex, was a locomotive driver.

A.C. S. Wainwright was a printer in Newport, while A.C. J. Brown, who thinks some of the gardens in Victoria are "pretty good" followed his trade as a gardener in Perth, Scotland.

There is John Thomas Midgeley of Barnsley, Yorkshire, who has a talent for writing verse. While the R.A.F. was indulging in a soul-satisfying rendition of "Bless 'Em All," John Thomas announced, "I am no singer, but I know words." He did, and a new verse was added to the popular R.A.F. song.

POLITICS

Politics in Roads

R. L. Maitland, Conservative leader, told Creston district electors Wednesday night that "playing politics" with the province's highway system had "done more to retard development in the province than any other factor."

"We want to see this province go ahead," Mr. Maitland said in speaking in support of M. C. Donaldson, Conservative candidate in Nelson-Creston riding. "We want to see our traffic go through this province and not through the States. We want the tourist business to come here across the border over modern highways."

"There is a Liberal advertisement running today opposing a highway commission," the Conservative leader said. "They want to go on in the same old way—the way of patronage of favoritism, of turning expenditures and planning to political advantage."

Mr. Maitland said the province's highway program "should be under a business administration of highways, as a highway commission would make possible."

Pritchett Withdraws

Harold Pritchett announced in Vancouver he is withdrawing as an election candidate in Vancouver-Centre in favor of the C.C.F. candidates. Mr. Pritchett filed nomination papers Tuesday as a Labor candidate.

In explaining his action he said that he had entered the contest in the hope that the C.C.F. would contest only one of the two seats, and would co-operate in his campaign.

C.C.F. candidates in the riding are Mrs. Laura Jamieson, who represented Vancouver-Centre in the last provincial Legislature, and W. W. Lefeaux.

Saanich Board

School System Cannot Change

After receiving a delegation of Cordova Bay parents protesting transferring of their children from Royal Oak School to McKenzie Avenue School and to Strawberry School to relieve overcrowding in the classrooms, Saanich School Board Wednesday night said it was unable to make any changes in the system at the present time.

The delegation headed by G. S. McMoran wanted adjustments made so that permanent residents of the bay area, with investments in the municipality, could send their children to one school only.

Discussion on the matter lasted nearly two hours.

Because of the increased numbers of families at Cordova Bay resulting from the large numbers of men at the R.C.A.F. base at Patricia Bay, the children of the district are taken by bus to Royal Oak, where some of them attend school. The rest, and some of Royal Oak's pupils, are then taken to McKenzie Avenue School, where a similar change is made, and the bus continues to Strawberry Vale School.

The different changes at the schools were made necessary by overcrowding of classrooms in certain grades.

Twenty-five per cent of the children in the Cordova Bay area affected by recent transfers are those of permanent residents, Mr. McMoran claimed.

"Is the board to sit here and forget Cordova Bay?" another member of the delegation asked. "All residents of Saanich, whether transient or permanent, are entitled to the same educational privileges for their children," said Trustee M. W. Dawson.

Trustee R. H. Shanks pointed out the board had no power to discriminate between the children of nonresidents and residents.

"There is not a thing the board can do under present conditions," he said. "It's not what we'd like to do but what we'd like to do."

"I would advise the delegation to present a petition," said Trustee Dawson.

"We have done the only thing we could do. There are a lot of children walking far greater distances than your children are riding. We had 60 children in one room in McKenzie Avenue School. The Department of Education won't countenance our putting up any new schools until this job in Europe is finished."

Trustee E. C. Warren said no children were moved from one school to another without due de liberation by the board. There had been an abnormal influx of people into Saanich and the board had tried to allow children to attend the schools nearest their homes.

The board decided to write parents who complained of transfers of their children, telling them the children were required to attend schools designated and in default of such attendance the parents rendered themselves liable to a fine of $10 for each day the pupils missed.

When speaking to the Victoria group Mr. Daly said that the U.C.T. was built upon fraternalism and in his opinion patriotism and fraternalism were synonymous. He stated that the present method of government in Canada and the United States was built upon fraternalism, when, in their formation, the leaders of the nations had to make concessions to each other to make the democracies a success. Mr. Daly said Canada and the United States stood together because of the realization that there was a common brotherhood between the two nations.

He was confident that the Allies would win the war, calling for ruthless prosecution of the battle, then tolerance and consideration in the making of the peace.

INVEST IN CANADA

Harold Smith told of the beneficial work the U.C.T. was doing for its 80,000 members and their dependents throughout the United States and Canada. From Canada, he said, the Travelers' organization was taking only enough money from membership dues to bear the share of the 5,000 Canadian members' expenses at the Columbus, Ohio, headquarters. The rest was being invested in Canadian securities, the sum amounting to $51 for each Canadian member, or a total of $255,000. This meant, he said, that the U.C.T. was 100 per cent behind the Canadian war effort.

He added that members on active service, both in the United States and Canada, were entitled to the disability and orphans' and widows' pensions without payment of dues in case of accident or death on this continent by any means other than actual combat. To date $3,000,

First Baptists Burn Mortgage

Taking part in the mortgage-burning ceremony were, left to right, H. F. Bishop, Mrs. H. F. Bishop, H. Whittaker, A. J. Clyde and Capt. C. W. Foote.

First of two mortgages on the First Baptist Church property, Quadra Street, was burned at a supper gathering of church members and friends Wednesday night when three anniversaries were celebrated.

The supper marked the 65th anniversary of the founding of the church here, the fifth anniversary of the dedication of the present church site, and the 11th anniversary of Rev. G. A. Reynolds' ministry of the church.

In charge of the mortgage burning ceremony were Mrs. H. F. Bishop and Albert J. Clyde, both of whom have been continuously associated with the church since its inception, and both of whose parents were among a group of 15 people who comprised the original organization. Assisting in the ceremony were Captain J. C. Foote, life deacon of the church and long-time member, and H. F.

Bishop, retired postmaster who was a member for many years also.

A resume of the church's history was given by Major S. Henson who said that in 1936 the present church building was purchased from the United Church of Canada.

He called attention to the fact that First Baptist Church was the mother church of the denomination in British Columbia.

The financial statement of the church presented by Henry Whittaker showed that all running expenses had been met and $16,000 had been paid in five years in principal and interest and with all accounts paid there was still a balance in hand.

The minister, Mr. Reynolds, in a brief address urged members to remember always the first duty of the Christian church was of spiritual character. His remarks followed those of rejoicing in the financial success of the institution.

"The primary purpose of the church," he said, "is to spread abroad the knowledge that Jesus Christ is the Saviour of man."

Greetings and felicitations to First Baptist Church were extended by Rev. F. W. McKinnon, Douglas Street Baptist Church, and Rev. W. L. McKay, Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Other addresses were given by Mrs. George Bishop on behalf of the women of the church; W. N. Finlay, the deacons; Miss Vera Waller, the young people's organizations.

The program was interspersed with musical items which included choir selections under the direction of Oliver Stout, double male quartette numbers, violin solos by Miss Marie Vowles accompanied by Miss Eva Vowles, and vocal solos by Mrs. Walter Marmo and Ralph McAdam.

U.S. Delegates Say Canada and U.S. Stand Together

The Victoria council of the United Commercial Travelers played host Wednesday evening to Jim Daly of Columbus, Ohio, editor of the fraternity's magazine, the Sample Case, and to Harold Smith, past supreme councillor from Racine, Wisconsin, at a dinner in the Douglas Hotel. The two men left on the midnight boat for Vancouver, their visit to Victoria being the first trip to Canada on a promotional tour that has taken them to every council centre on the Pacific coast of the United States.

When speaking to the Victoria group Mr. Daly said that the U.C.T. was built upon fraternalism and in his opinion patriotism and fraternalism were synonymous. He stated that the present method of government in Canada and the United States was built upon fraternalism, when, in their formation, the leaders of the nations had to make concessions to each other to make the democracies a success. Mr. Daly said Canada and the United States stood together because of the realization that there was a common brotherhood between the two nations.

He was confident that the Allies would win the war, calling for ruthless prosecution of the battle, then tolerance and consideration in the making of the peace.

He added that members on active service, both in the United States and Canada, were entitled to the disability and orphans' and widows' pensions without payment of dues in case of accident or death on this continent by any means other than actual combat. To date $3,000, 000 had been paid out to the widows of late members, and a total of $30,000,000 had been distributed in all types of benefits.

In an interview Wednesday afternoon pertaining to conditions in the States, Mr. Daly said, "The most serious difficulty in the United States at the present time is the lack of confidence among a large group of people in the wisdom of many of the things that have been done by the country."

ALL AID TO BRITAIN

Mr. Daly said that he was an advocate of all possible aid to Britain in this war, and stated that the people in the eastern states were ready to fight.

"There is no concern about the war in the middle states," he said, "but there is more war spirit on the west coast, although not as much as in the east."

He thought the production situation in Canada was much better than south of the border, because war contracts were being let to small businessmen as well as the big concerns.

"This healthy state of affairs does not exist in the States," he continued. "The defence contracts are being given exclusively to the large manufacturers, and, due to government priority on all raw materials, the small businessman is being ruined. It seems unbelievable, with increases in production and demand for labor that the U.S. government is appropriating more money for relief this year than it did in 1940."

In reference to labor and strikes, Mr. Daly said, "the people are becoming impatient about strikes. The National Labor Relations Board is criticised in many places for its evident prejudice in favor of labor, and, while the nation is entirely sympathetic with the labor, it is not unanimous in its agreement with labor leaders and is beginning to question the administration's attitude toward labor. It is the fear of labor sympathizers that the labor program is endangered by those who pretend to be its friends. Labor is loyal, but is being led by people who have no regard for national needs."

HEAVY SPENDING

"We are spending astronomical amounts down there," he continued. "The talk is always in millions and hundreds of millions of dollars. But many of the people who favor this spending don't realize that the amounts involved have to be collected."

"The laborer has had very favorable treatment and will now have to give up some of his wage increases in the taxes that are just beginning to be felt. He will demand more increases in pay, and there will be a counter objection by employers. All of this will not be in the interests of national unity. Much of the labor trouble will continue and will be enlarged when the full weight of the taxes begins to be felt."

Harold Smith had less to say, but made this statement: "Queen Elizabeth of England is the greatest salesman in the world today. She sold the United States on her country and herself when the Royal couple made that historic trip to this continent two years ago. I fell in love with her and the American people fell in love with her, not because she was queenly, but because she was gracious and considerate."

On Libyan Frontier

Patrols Made In Bitter Chill Of Desert Dawn

By GODFREY ANDERSON WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN EGYPT'S WESTERN DESERT (AP)—South African patrols in fast United States-made armored cars range far and wide over the Libyan frontier area as the eyes and ears of Gen. Sir Claude J. E. Auchinleck's Army of the Nile.

I have just spent two days with one of these squadrons of mechanized cavalry, sharing their constant state of alert far in advance of the main British army.

Before the first light of day we moved out to patrol locations, each man muffled in sweaters, overcoats and gloves against the bitter chill of the desert dawn.

Perched atop a gun turret I could see other cars moving on parallel courses on our flanks. Sometimes they dipped in desert gullies until only the blue pennants fluttering from slender radio masts marked their positions.

They looked like miniature battleships plowing through deep swells.

When the sun rose and the crews threw off their heavy wraps, the patrol stopped behind a low ridge. Clambering on the turrets and scouring the country westward with field glasses we could see what looked like dark blobs beyond the milestones marking the frontier less than a mile away.

To an experienced eye the blobs were German transports and a tank. What appeared to be a slender, upraised finger pointing skyward on the distant horizon was in reality a German watchtower. We, too, were being watched.

At one point we passed a derelict tank. The gunner gave an involuntary shudder at the sight. He had dived under it once to escape a machine-gunning German Messerschmitt—and had to dispute possession of the shelter with a large and angry snake.

By PETE SALLAWAY

WITH the world baseball series off to a flying start between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers what better time to give a few highlights on the career of Larry MacPhail, one-man ruler of this daffy Dodgers from Brooklyn. His career in the National League reads like one of Horatio Alger's best sellers. He was dubbed "The Hick from Columbus" when he started night baseball in Cincinnati in 1935 against tremendous opposition from New York Giants, Brooklyn and Boston. Lights proved a life-saver for the Giants and helped MacPhail get together the money with which to develop and purchase pennant-winning clubs in Cincinnati and Brooklyn.

The Reds didn't finish first for MacPhail, but the flag-gathering club was on the field when he showed off for Brooklyn.

MacPhail is far and away the most progressive man in baseball and the finest showman. He is the National League's biggest asset.

He was the first to sponsor traveling by air for club buses.

MacPhail wants to handle everything himself, never delegating authority to anybody. As a result, he constitutes a one-man bottleneck. With the world series now in progress he had a 20-minute row because $385 worth of stationery was charged to the Brooklyn club without his o.k. It wasn't the money—merely that he wasn't consulted.

MacPhail personally examined every Ebbets Field ticket application for the world series, and had a civic committee named to check their handling.

MacPhail has spent $881,000 for talent since going to Ebbets Field to start the season of 1939, but he has made money and given the club back to the stockholders. The Dodgers played to 1,190,577 at home this season and to 1,043,288 on the road. They bailed out the Giants again, 314,000 seeing the 11 games they played at the Polo Grounds. They kept Gerry Nugent in baseball in Philadelphia with their closing series there.

When MacPhail arrived, the club owed the bank more than $500,000, plus a $600,000 mortgage. This summer the Beautiful Bums finished paying off the bank. The mortgage, now considered a good investment, was purchased from the bank by the Equitable Life Insurance Co. So the Brooklyn Trust's only interest in the Bums is as one of the co-executors of the Ebbets estate.

MacPhail signed a three-year contract at $50,000. It runs through 1943. A clause stipulates he can step out any time the club is sold if he doesn't feel like working for new owners (or vice versa) and be paid in full.

MacPhail is totally unpredictable. Though Leo Durocher is liked by his men, which is the true test, and has just won a pennant, MacPhail says he sometimes wonders whether the Lip has the stability and vision to manage a pennant winner.

Showing his activity, MacPhail's long distance telephone calls are twice that of any other baseball executive. He telephones his athletes when they are on the road.

MacPhail is of a Michigan banking family. He played in the backfield for and baseball with Beloit and George Washington, but was ineligible while at Michigan. He is a lawyer, and talks like one.

MacPhail was for 20 years a prominent football official in the Midwest.

He has a great imagination. Though he did not compete there, Larry MacPhail is a violent Michigan rooster.

In fact, he's still mad at Red Grange for what the Galloping Ghost did against the Wolverines as a sophomore in 1923.

Delaney Wins Fight

Wenstob Outsmarted

VANCOUVER (CP)—Thanks to superior ring cunning and greater endurance Al Delaney of Windsor, Ont., was still Canadian heavyweight champion today after a 12-round defence of his title last night against Eddie Wenstob of Viking, Alta. Delaney weighed 199 and Wenstob 180½.

It was a close decision but a popular one, with 7,000 fans who packed the Forum to form one of Vancouver's biggest fight crowd in years.

Wenstob made a valiant attempt to live up to his pre-fight predictions that he would cut down the champion, but he was unable to penetrate Delaney's defences effectively. The cool-headed Windsor boxer stalked his challenger, peppering Wenstob with left jabs and occasionally unleashing a flash of slugging.

Wenstob, grim-faced throughout, seldom succeeded in knocking off Delaney's confident smile, although he took the lead in the first five rounds largely on the strength of his clever left jab.

DELANEY OPENS UP

But Delaney opened up in the sixth, stung to action by Wenstob's fifth-round one-two punch to the jaw that rocked the champion. The Windsor fighter drove Wenstob back with a hard left hook and seconds later Wenstob went down for a no-count.

The final round had the crowd on their feet as the fighters exchanged a wild flurry of leather, but neither could connect with a finishing punch.

The fight had the sanction of the Canadian Boxing Federation, which recognizes Delaney as Dominion champion.

Rainers, Solons Battle Friday

SEATTLE (AP)—The Sacramento Solons, who defeated Seattle's three-time champions 15 times in 24 games during the regular baseball season, will open against the Rainiers here Friday night in the president's cup play-off of the Coast League.

Seattle squeezed into the final playoff series by defeating fourth-place Hollywood twice Tuesday night for four out of seven. Sacramento downed San Diego four straight. Hal Turpin, the league's leading pitcher for 1941, is expected to start on the mound for Seattle against either Tony Freitas or George Munger.

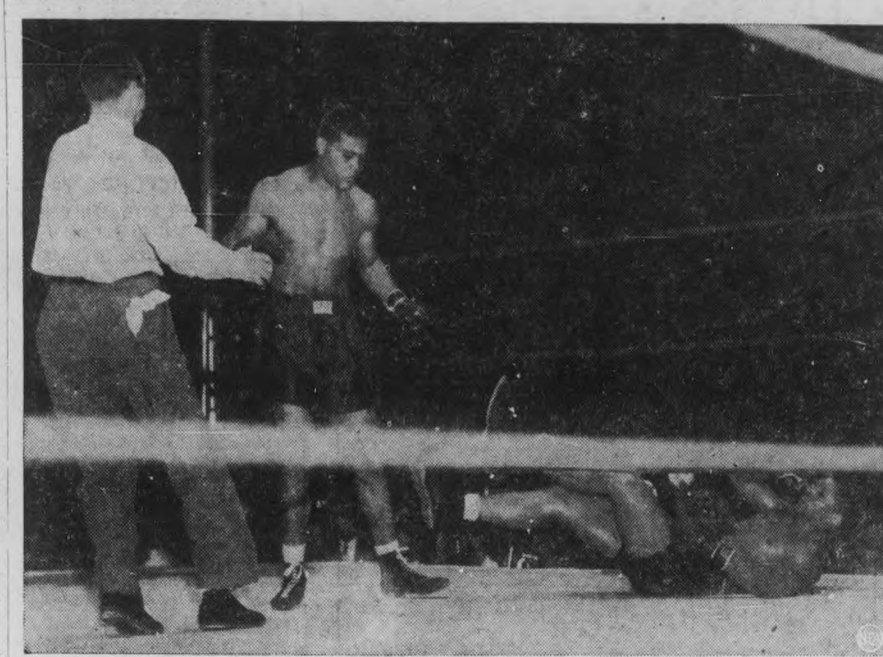

Single games will be played Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon before the teams leave for Sacramento to finish the series.

SOCCER WORKOUTS

The V.M.D. soccer team will hold a workout tonight at the Athletic Park at 7.30. All players are asked to turn out. Starting at 8.30 the Victoria United team will hold a training session.

End of Nova

Dramatic finish of Monday night's heavyweight championship fight was seen soon after the above picture was taken. Lou Nova, California challenger, is flat on the canvas after being dropped by one of Joe Louis' right crosses to the chin. At left is Referee Arthur Donovan who stopped the fight shortly after to save Nova from further punishment, awarding Louis a technical knockout, in 2:59 of the sixth round.

St. Kitts Set For Trip West

MONTREAL (CP)—St. Catharines Athletics today are looking forward to that trip to Vancouver where the Mann Cup final will be played, and to a man they'll tell you that the only thing that stands in their way right now is time.

The boys from St. Kitts who are defending the coveted lacrosse award opened up their Dominion semifinal series against the St. Regis-Caughnawaga Indians here last night, and after scalping the Redskins, 18 to 5, felt that it would be just a matter of going through the formalities in tonight's second game of the best-of-three series, to bring the affair to an abrupt end.

Bill Wilson, who has played on six Dominion championship lacrosse teams in junior and senior company, combined with Wandy McMahon to lead the scoring parade. Wilson picked up seven goals and three assists, while McMahon accounted for 11 points for the night, on five goals and six assists.

Missed Bunt Sign Gave Yanks Big Double Play

Yanks Silent After Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—Winning a ball game doesn't mean a thing—to the triumphant New York Yankees.

Cocky and defiant, the Yanks took yesterday's victory as just another ball game. Their dressing-room was almost as quiet as a morgue.

Grey-haired Arthur Fletcher, one of the coaches, tried to stir up a little enthusiasm by emitting one piercing whoop. But nobody joined him, so he quit. There was no yelling, no hollering, and not even a pat on the back.

Joe McCarthy, manager of the Yanks, walked over to Red Ruffing and shook him warmly by the hand and praised his sixth pitching performance.

Ruffing was dead tired. He pulled off his shoes, lit a cigarette and flopped down in a chair in front of his locker.

McCarthy refused to get excited over the victory. Puffing on a big black cigar, he sat at his desk in the little room that serves as his office and opened telegrams. One fan in Baton Rouge, La., wired him as follows: "Can't get you on the radio here. Hope you lose."

"Now ain't that a pip?" McCarthy asked. "A manager always gets blamed for everything."

HOLDS SILENCE

Reporters piled him with questions in an attempt to get him to open up.

"It was just another ball game," he said. "You fellows saw the game. We made the longest hits, but they had men on bases. It was anybody's game. Ruffing pitched a very good game."

The Dodgers were disappointed, but were as optimistic as ever about the series. To a man, they agreed, "the Yanks aren't as tough as we thought they were."

Manager Leo Durocher, Ducky Medwick, Pete Reiser, Curt Davis and the others agreed on this. Johnny Allen, the third Dodger elbow yesterday (he used to be a Yankee himself), made it even more emphatic when he announced to the squad: "We're in, fellas. Ruffing is the only pitcher they got and we had him hanging on the ropes. From now on it's just a soft touch."

"Davis pitched a good game," Durocher said, "but he made two mistakes. Those hurt. He gave Gordon and Dickey each a low inside pitch and you know what happened. Gordon hit a homer and Dickey doubled to drive in a run."

"All I can say is that with a break or two going our way, we'd have won easily."

Davis felt lowest of any man in the room. He'd pitched his heart out and it wasn't quite good enough. But he wasn't quitting and wants another shot at the Bombers.

"I'll be ready to go again in four days," he said. "I didn't have my sinker and had to throw slow stuff and curves."

He said the telegram definitely was sent from Toronto.

Only a few hours before the telegram signed "Balmy Beach Football Club" was received by McCarthy, the league president had announced that the six-man executive committee had decided that Porter, a former professional baseball player, was ineligible to play in the Union.

Hold Final Shoot

Final shoot for the 1941 season will be held Sunday at the Victoria Skeet and Gun Club grounds on the Albert Head Road. Visitors are invited to attend and try their hand at bringing down the moving targets.

Shooting season for pheasants, quail and willow grouse opens October 18, and the final shoot will give the hunters a chance to sharpen up their sights.

Guns and ammunition will be available on the grounds. A special prize will be awarded the competitor making the longest run without a miss.

CHICAGO SOX TAKE LEAD OVER CUBS

CHICAGO (AP)—The American League White Sox scored four runs on six hits in the ninth inning yesterday to defeat the National League Cubs 4 to 1 in the opening game of the city series.

The Cubs collected only five hits off Lyons. All of the Sox' 13 hits were made off Claude Passeau, who was replaced in the ninth by Tot Pressnell.

Short score—R. H. E. Chicago (A.L.) 4 13 0 Chicago (N.L.) 1 5 0 Batteries—Lyons and Tresh; Passeau, Pressnell and McCullough.

Glasgow school children are reported to be about a year behind in reading achievement, the result of war conditions.

First Series Game Marked By Highlights

NEW YORK (AP)—Adding to the general confusion about the way the Brooklyn Dodgers killed their own biggest threat in yesterday's world series game, it was learned last night that pinch-hitter Jim Wasdell was given the bunt signal with two on and none out in the seventh inning—and then missed the sign.

Instead he took a full cut at the ball and sent up a pop foul which promptly resulted in a double play as Red Rolfe took the fly and tossed to third base to catch Pee Wee Reese. Earlier, Dodger manager Leo Durocher disclosed Reese had tried to come down from second to third base on the play without getting the sign to do so.

Wasdell admitted he missed the bunt sign, and it was discovered Durocher gave him quite a verbal going-over in the dressing-room for blowing it. At the time Reese was on second, Lew Riggs was on first, there was none out, one run was in and the Dodgers were a run behind.

When Durocher brought Wasdell up to pinch-hit, he told him: "Jim Ruffing (Red Ruffing, Yankee pitcher) is trying to steam that first pitch past us, so take a cut at it. If you miss the first one, get the sign on what to do."

Wasdell swung at the first offering and missed it by inches.

"Then," he explained to Durocher afterward, "I stepped out of the box and looked to Dressen (Coach Chuck Dressen at third) for the sign. I must have missed it."

SIGN NOT ON?

Dressen put the bunt sign on, but since Wasdell didn't see it, he figured he was on his own. He took a full cut, and the ball glanced off his bat into the air over foul territory. Rolfe charged in and caught the pop knee high, about two steps from the Yankee dugout.

Manager Joe McCarthy and several other Yankees poked their heads out and hollered, "third, Red, third," Rolfe wheeled and tossed to shortstop Phil Rizzuto, who was covering third, and it was no trick at all for Phil to put the tag on Reese, running down from second base.

On top of all this, the Dodgers sacrificed whatever other hopes they might have had when Riggs, who had pinch-singled, failed to take advantage of the play at third to come from first to second. He stayed on first, and even if the next batter had hit safely instead of going out, he was in no position to get within shouting distance of home plate.

SERIES NOTES

The fat guy who plunked himself into a box back of the Yankee dugout was no mirage. . . . Babe Ruth, in person. The Babe, Connie Mack and comedian Joe E. Brown all sat in the same neighborhood.

Judge Landis threw out the first ball—wild pitch, Dickey had to dive for it as he never had to chase Lefty Gomez' sailer stuff in his wildest days.

Through the first four innings, Red Ruffing had four strikeouts. Just to show he was picking on guys his own size, he chalked the kayos up against Camilli (2), Medwick and Reiser—the three toughest hitters on the Dodgers.

It took Ruffing 10 pitches to get rid of Herman in the fourth, which is really doing it the hard way.

Ted Marsh Wins Cowichan Derby

DUNCAN — Reeling in a 29-pound 7-ounce spring, Ted Marsh won first prize in the Duncan Kinsmen Club salmon derby held Sunday at Cowichan Bay to raise funds for the club's "Milk for British Children" objective.

T. Page was second with a 21-pound 9-ounce fish, G. Morgan third with a 20-pound 8-ounce catch. In the ladies' class Mrs. E. Costin was winner with a 27-pound 4-ounce spring, Mrs. Stanley Bonsall came second with a 19-pound 12-ounce salmon, and Miss T. Peasley third with a 16-pound 12-ounce fish.

K. Innamura caught the largest coho on any tackle, a 17-pound 13-ounce fish, winning the Indian sweater donated by the Coho Club. Mrs. Jones had the largest coho caught on a fly, 15 pound 9 ounces, Mrs. E. Lowe was second. G. R. Johnson in the men's section had the largest coho caught on a fly—it weighed 15 pounds 8 ounces. The weighing in and presentation of prizes was done at the Ordano boat-house, owing to the inclement weather. Buck Kennett was in charge of arrangements, and approximately $120 was raised.

time, the fans wanted to know if he was Ruffing's cousin on the mother's or father's side.

Charley Keller slid into third on his game leg in the sixth, and for a second you could actually see Joe McCarthy's heart popping up into his mouth.

The series opener probably set a new high for deportment by the fans. Beyond some mild and disorganized blowing on police whistles back of third base the popping of a few firecrackers off left field way, there were no demonstrations of any sort—and that, with fully half the house rooting for Brooklyn, surely was not as expected.

To get a rough idea of how the record house was split, you could watch the two seventh-inning stretches. So many people stood up for the Dodgers, it looked like they must be playing the national anthem again. But when almost as many got up for the Yanks, it was decided a lot of people were being impartial, if not two-faced.

Through the first four innings, Red Ruffing had four strikeouts. Just to show he was picking on guys his own size, he chalked the kayos up against Camilli (2), Medwick and Reiser—the three toughest hitters on the Dodgers.

Brigade Committee Arranges Training

At the invitation of Capt. T. Baxter of the 1st Victoria Company (St. Andrew's), the Victoria Advisory Committee of the Boys' Brigade met last Saturday. The committee is composed of old officers and boys of the brigade now resident in Victoria.

Major F. V. Longstaff was in the chair and said the sole object of the committee was to aid in the raising of the standard of work in the local units, and thus the advancement of Christian manliness among boys. R. Scoble, leader-in-charge of the Life Boy Team of Centennial United Church School, said his church had approved the formation of a brigade company.

Arrangements were made for the provision of gymnastic, ambulance and signalling training as well as active games in several units.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Peoples Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, doped, tired and peevish.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

Kipling Society

"I have received many honors in my life, but the greatest honor was the friendship of Rudyard Kipling," Madame la Generale Taufflieb told members of the Victoria Kipling Society Tuesday at the first meeting of the 1941-1942 session, held in the Union Building.

The speaker was a lifelong friend of the author and his wife, and she gave many reminiscences of their years of friendship. She spoke of their many visits to her chateau in France, and her recollections of Batemans, the Kipling's beautiful home in Sussex. The speaker read to the audience the author's poem, "For All We Have and Are." Col. H. T. Goodland, who was himself an intimate friend of Kipling, proposed a vote of thanks to Madame Taufflieb.

A short reading was given by Mrs. J. W. Church from Edward Shanks' book, "Rudyard Kipling," relating to the author's life when he first became known to the reading public.

Members expressed regret at the resignation of Mrs. W. J. Neal from the position of secretary-treasurer, owing to work in connection with the A.R.P. and First Aid. Mrs. D. M. F. MacArthur was appointed to take over the position for the remainder of the session. A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Neal for her work in the society since it was first organized.

By the end of 1942 the United States probably will be able to make enough synthetic rubber for its defence needs, an industrial chemist predicts.

OFFICER'S COURAGE

MELBOURNE (AP)—A story of the cool courage and self-sacrifice of a young Australian officer has reached here from besieged Tobruk.

The officer was in charge of a stronghold surrounded by German tanks. Rejecting German demands that he surrender, the Australian informed his own artillery battery covering the post of the range, and told the artillery officer, "never mind us, but get those tanks."

"The men in the outpost remained flat on the ground while guns pounded the position, eventually destroying two tanks and driving off others. The eventual fate of the men in the outpost was not reported.

"Shot down three Messerschmitts and damaged two," the cable said. P.O. Whalen gave no indication of where or how the engagement occurred. He has been attached to the fleet air arm since he went overseas last February.

R.A.F. Flying Schools Being Planned

OTTAWA (CP)—Between 30 and 40 R.A.F. flying schools will be established in Canada by the time Britain completes the westward movement of student fliers and training personnel which began about a year ago, Air Minister Power told the Canadian Press today.

"These schools are not actually a part of the British Commonwealth air training plan, but they are administered by us in conjunction with the plan," said Major Power. "The sites for all of them have been selected."

Listed Missing

CHEMAMUS—Word has been received that Sgt. Wireless Air Gunner R. D. Starkie-Bence, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Starkie-Bence, Kentwell Hall, Long Medford, Suffolk, England, has been reported missing during air operations. He formerly lived in Chemainus.

Britain Ready For Expected Air Raids

LONDON (CP)—The government, working feverishly during the current lull in air raid, has prepared Britain for heavier and more violent attacks which officials warn may come soon.

Fire-fighting services have been reorganized, surface and underground shelters enlarged, strengthened and made more comfortable, barrage balloons overhauled, immense tanks of water erected at strategic points, rest centres re-equipped, hospital services broadened.

Although the bulk of the German air force has been occupied in Russia, informed sources believe that as soon as winter cloaks the Soviet, large forces of the Nazi air fleet will be transferred to the western front for raids on Britain. The Germans themselves claim "large-scale" attacks will begin in October.

The R.A.F.'s devastating raids on Berlin and industrial land military targets have also convinced authorities the Nazis soon may unleash their night bombers. Keynote of the governments campaign to "streamline" equipment and services has been the motto "Britain shall not burn." This message has been spread throughout the country by huge posters in flaming colors depicting incendiary bombs with fingers of fire clutching for something to devour.

With this in mind the 1,400 local authority fire brigades in England and Wales are reconstituted as a national fire service, composed of the 33 fire forces operating under a new code of discipline, new conditions of service, new terms of remuneration and a new system of control.

When reinforcements are required they will come into action as quickly and as uniformly as a battery of field guns.

Special attention also has been paid to air raid shelters. Thousands of unsatisfactory shelters have been pulled down or closed and new-type shelters, equipped to withstand blast, erected. Ventilating, heating and sanitary arrangements have been improved and recreation and first aid facilities installed.

NAZI BOSSES

German Economic Minister WALTHER FUNK asserted in Berlin Germany does not want to exercise world domination, but he warned that European countries would have to conduct their economy the way the Nazis desire—"namely, with a continental European objective"

CANADIAN NICKEL IN 'ALL-OUT' WAR EFFORT

THIS VAST, 12-ACRE AMPHITHEATRE in the International Nickel Company's Canadian refinery is doing its part in speeding Empire production. In its row on row of concrete tanks filled with bright green liquid, the final operation in purifying the Nickel from Canadian mines is performed.

Down each long aisle glides a great bridge-crane. One after another, the 480-pound anodes of partially refined Nickel are lowered into the tanks. Steadily, silently, unceasingly, electricity performs its magic. A few weeks later, cathodes of pure Nickel are lifted from the tanks and rushed to the mills, foundries and factories of Canada, the Empire and the United States.

For twenty-four hours each day, three shifts of Canadian workmen, united in loyal service to the Empire, keep this plant at its peak of production. The mighty crushers and ball mills grind onward without ceasing. The inferno of the furnaces knows no pause. For Nickel, so essential to make peace-time machinery tough, strong, hard, rust-proof, is needed more than ever to forge better and better war machines for our fighting forces.

Canadian Nickel today is not only a national asset... it is vital to the defence of the Empire.

Men in Britain
Vote Next Week

Ezra Henniger, Liberal, of Grand Forks, who was nominated by a stopped watch, and Harold Pritchett, Labor man of Vancouver Centre, who withdrew after filing nomination papers, have given a first-class headache in the last 48 hours to officials in charge of balloting for the soldiers, sailors and airmen of British Columbia overseas.

Because the men in England start voting next Thursday, the election officials had to rush the candidate lists away the minute they were compiled. But when the question was raised about Mr. Henniger's nomination, dispatch of the lists was held up 12 hours until a ruling was made that he could stand.

Capt. W. R. Webster, special officer in charge of service voting, and his staff, got to work as soon as the nomination was finally accepted, sent cables to England and dispatched packets of candidate lists to points all over Canada, where British Columbians are stationed.

They were congratulating themselves on a job well done, when Mr. Pritchett's withdrawal was announced. This morning they had to get busy sending corrections to all polling stations that Mr. Pritchett's name must be deleted from every list.

Under acting Agent-General W. A. McAdam in London, a special staff handling the overseas vote faces another rush task. They received the official list by cable yesterday, the correction today. They must get lists printed and circulated along with ballots and the other election material to 40-odd polling stations in the United Kingdom before next Thursday.

Youth Suspected

Police are on the lookout for a youth, about 20 years old, short, medium build, wearing black coat and trousers, who was reported Wednesday night at about 11.30 to have held up Look Hay, a Chinese, 507 Johnson Street, at Store and Cormorant Streets.

The Chinese said the youth forced him into the doorway of the Station Hotel and demanded his money.

When he refused the youth's demand a tussle resulted in which Look's shirt was torn as he escaped.

Constable H. Mercer and D. Buckle were called to the scene and later Detective M. Wilkinson took charge of the investigation.

Formally charged in City Police Court today with manslaughter, Thomas Leahy, a B.C. Electric Railway Company street car conductor, was remanded until Monday, when a date for his hearing will be set. Leahy was the operator of a street car which struck and killed George Hickman, 50-year-old gardener at Government and Johnson Streets on September 24.

A motorist's excuse for parking his car on the street in town all night that his generator had burned out and he was unable to get it fixed, was accepted by Magistrate H. C. Hall in City Police Court today, and sentence on a charge of night parking against the motorist was suspended. Five other motorists were fined $2.50 each for night parking and parking over the time limit in one-hour zones.

Second Charge

Harry Ronald Smith and Albert Grey, charged in City Police Court Wednesday with unlawfully retaining in their possession goods over the value of $25, the property of Cole Brothers Fishing & Packing Company, Ogden Point, knowing them to have been stolen, appeared in the same court today on a second charge of retaining stolen goods over the value of $25, the property of the Hillside Pure Foods Ltd. store, Hillside Avenue and Fernwood Road.

Represented by Stuart Henderson, both men elected for preliminary hearing on both charges and were remanded until Monday. Bail was set by Magistrate H. C. Hall at $2,000 for each man on the Cole Brothers' charge and if bail is put up they will be released on their own recognizance on the grocery store charge.

Police reported both the Cole Brothers' plant and the grocery store were broken into Monday night or early Tuesday morning and quantities of fishing hooks and rope, groceries and cigarettes stolen.

Mother Reared Otto
To Be Future Ruler

Archduke Otto, who has been in Victoria the last two days, was reared and educated as a future ruler. Around him as her eldest child, his brilliant mother, ex-Empress Zita, has woven all her plans. He learned all the languages spoken in the old Austro-Hungarian Empire. He studied international law and statecraft. He grew up a handsome lad, most romantic-looking of all the Hapsburgs. He inherited the intelligence, the energy and the ambition of his mother. In him the Hapsburg stock has not gone to seed.

Zita's husband, the late Karl, was the last Emperor of the ancient Austro-Hungarian empire. With her husband she saw the founding of the empire in the last year of the world war. With him, she fled from the revolution. From afar, she saw the peace-makers and the treaty-makers carve up the ancient monarchy. Only a small Austria and a small Hungary were left to preserve the old names.

INDOMITABLE

Karl, having abdicated was rather inclined to accept what fate had meted out to him. Not so the indomitable Zita. She had her plans. She always had plans. This time it was that they should go back to Hungary and become its King and Queen. Later, they would add Austria. It would be the beginning of a new Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Bucked up by her, Karl went to Hungary, only to be turned down by Regent Horthy. Zita waited in Switzerland. Once more she planned. This time she flew to Hungary with her husband. Once more Horthy failed them and foiled them. But this time they found no harbor in Switzerland. They were bundled aboard a British gunboat on the Danube and taken into exile in Madeira. There, in poverty and cold, Karl died.

THE EMPEROR

Zita took her family of young children to Spain where her kinsman and fellow Bourbon, then King Alfonso, gave her refuge. Later she moved to Castle Stenckerzeel, Belgium. There by Zita's command in the house and to the servants and visitors Otto was always "the Emperor."

Zita continued active, figuring that some day some situation would arise which would render helpless the Little Entente of Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and Rumania which had proclaimed that any attempt to restore a Hapsburg would mean war. Then she would have her hour. Her boy would come home in triumph.

AWAITING THE HOUR

But she had shifted her ground. She no longer had her eye on Hungary so long as Horthy lived. Austria was now her goal. The monarchists had developed quite a party there. It was believed Chancellor Schuschnigg himself was true to the Hapsburgs. The only thing needed was the favorable hour. Even Socialists would prefer a Hapsburg to a Hitler.

Then Hitler marched in. Zita knew that his book, "Mein Kampf," was filled with complimentary references to the Hapsburgs, and that he had moved to Bavaria rather than live under their rule. He had said he had enlisted in the German army rather than serve under Hapsburg officers. Zita knew that as long as Hitler dominated, Otto would never be king, the hope of the Hapsburgs would not be realized.

TO AMERICA

When the Germans came through Belgium, Zita and her family fled their castle. Otto and his brother, Prince Felix, reached America. In July, 1940, Zita herself with her 20-year-old daughter, Princess Elizabeth, flew the Atlantic in a clipper. When she arrived at LaGuardia Field, N.Y., Otto and Felix were there to welcome her.

While Otto has been on his present tour of western Canada and United States, Felix has been busy between New York and Washington directing the work of rallying anti-Hitler opinion among former Austro-Hungarians.

After speaking at the Rotary Club, Otto left this afternoon for Seattle. He will speak there, and at the chief cities down the coast to California. Then he will return to Washington.

Auto Accidents
Increase Sharply

Fatalities in auto crashes in British Columbia during the first eight months of 1941 numbered 86, an increase of 22, or 34.37 per cent over last year, provincial motor traffic branch announced today.

Inspector G. A. Hood of the traffic branch said it was hard to account for the alarming increase, unless it could be attributed to a spirit of wartime "devil-may-care" among people.

The total number of accidents increased from 3,500 to 4,104, or 17.26 per cent. The number of injured was up by 15.36 per cent from 1,751 to 2,020, and property damage increased by 28.87 per cent from $367,014 to $472,775.

Inspector Hood said a slight increase in accidents was expected because there are more cars on the roads, but the higher accident rate is out of proportion to the increased car registration, which was up from 117,498 to 124,965, or 6.35 per cent.

Possibly Ottawa's gas conservation order will help reduce the toll, he said. In August, first month of gas restriction, the accident increase was halted. The federal controller advised reductions in speed as a means of saving gasoline, and speed has always been found the major factor in accidents, he said.

The number of fatalities dropped from 16 in August, 1940, to 14 this year, and the injured from 292 to 271. Property damage was higher, however, from $56,029 to $68,405, and the total of accidents slightly up from 579 to 582.

Archduke Addresses
Canadian Institute

Archduke Otto of Austria Wednesday night addressed a dinner meeting of the Victoria Branch of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs in the private dining-room of the Union Club. He was introduced by H. P. Hodges, who was in the chair, and thanked by R. W. Mayhew, M.P.

The meeting which was to have been held at the residence of J. L. Dunlop, 1906 Lansdowne Road, has been canceled. Iverson Macadam, secretary of the Royal Institute of International Affairs, London, England, who had intended to be present, has been detained in Portland, Oregon.

Evening Classes
Enroll Tonight

Back to school for hobby, vocational training and general improvement courses will go a portion of Greater Victoria's adult population tonight to register for the classes which claim their interest.

Work in the night school, sponsored by the Victoria School Board, with the co-operation of the Department of Education, will be in full swing next week, but this evening all those intending to take courses must register to ensure membership in any of the different classes. Those particularly anxious to enroll, but unable to attend tonight's registration, may make provision for late registration by telephoning the school board office, G 1413, without delay.

Teachers will be in attendance at the various centres, Victoria High, Central Junior High, Kings Road and Kingston Street, from 7.30 to 9.30 this evening to inform students of the material requirements needed for their special studies. The object of the evening's meeting is to see that at least the minimum of 10 register for any one course, and to ensure acquisition by students of supplies in order to avoid delay on the opening night of the class.

The actual terms extend from Monday, October 6, to December 19, and from January 5 to March 26.

New Companies

Nine new British Columbia companies, two extra-provincial concerns, and one society were registered this week, as follows: Kate Smith Bakeries Ltd., $50,000, New Westminster; Island Broadcasting Co. Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver; Gibson and Richardson Ltd., $70,000, Vancouver.

Extra - provincial — Pyrene Manufacturing Co. of Canada Ltd., $100,000, Toronto and Vancouver; Mantion Bros. Ltd., $50,000, Toronto and Vancouver.

Under the Societies' Act the E. V. Sturdy Happy Friendly Society of Vancouver was listed.

Cars Prowled

Reports of three cars being broken into were made to city police Wednesday night.

H. Henry, 1056 Queens Avenue, said tools were stolen from his car when a window was forced open while it was parked in his back yard. A garage had been broken into also and his father's car had been ransacked but nothing stolen.

N. Young, 2475 Cornwall Street, Vancouver, said two pairs of gloves, a brief case and a book were stolen when his car was prowled while it was parked outside 465 Chester Street.

COLWOOD

An A.R.P. meeting will be held tonight in Colwood Hall at 8. Moving pictures, dealing with A.R.P. work, will be shown by Sgt. Johnston of the provincial police.

Committed for Trial

Reve Sauvat was committed for trial by Magistrate H. C. Hall in City Police Court today when a hearing was completed on a charge that he broke into a room in the Kent Apartments, Blanshard and Johnson Streets, in the early hours of the morning of Tuesday, September 16.

NO INCREASE IN GAS PRICE HERE

British Columbia motorists, for the time being, at any rate, will not have to dig into their pockets and pay an extra one cent on each gallon of gasoline they buy.

Yesterday, G. R. Cottrell, federal oil controller, announced immediate increases of one cent a gallon in both grades of gasoline in Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

Prices of light fuel oil are to be increased by one-half cent a gallon and heavy fuel oil by 10 cents a barrel in the eastern provinces and in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan, the controller stated.

The increase was intended to partially reimburse oil companies for sharp increases in the price of crude, the controller told a press conference in Toronto.

130 New Officers

One hundred and thirty men, many of them Victorians, will be graduated from the officers' training course at Gordon Head Friday. Lieut. Governor W. C. Woodward will make the presentations. Major-General R. O. Alexander will be present.

The group began training 12 weeks ago. After a month basic training the men were divided for specialized training in artillery, engineering, army service corps, infantry and ordnance. The men qualify as 2nd lieutenants and proceed to advance training centres.

Col A. W. Wilson, D.S.O., V.D., is commandant of the Gordon Head school.

THOMAS—The death occurred suddenly at Prince Rupert, B.C., September 30, 1941, of Richard L. Thomas, formerly of Victoria. Mr. Thomas, who was 59 years of age, was born in Moncton, N.B., a son of the late John Thomas and Annie Thomas. He came to Victoria in 1912 and resided here for many years. He is survived by his wife, the Misses Gertrude, Mabel and Edith of Victoria, and Helen of Winnipeg, and three sisters in England, one brother in Vancouver and one brother in England.

Funeral from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Saturday at 2 p.m. Rev. George Biddle officiating. Interment in Royal Oak Burial Park.

WINTER—Passed away suddenly at his home, 1506 Leighton Road, Wednesday evening, October 1, Robert Henry Winter, aged 71 years and a native son. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Margaret Helen Winter, at the family residence; one son, Robert Orrick Winter, at 408 Belleville Street; two sisters, Mrs. T. Robertson, 180 Joseph Street, and Mrs. Sam Eastman of 142 St. Lawrence Street. The late Mr. Winter was a member of Court Northern Light, A.O.F., for many years.

The remains are lying at the Sands Mortuary Ltd., where the funeral will take place on Saturday, October 4, at 2 o'clock. Rev. G. A. Reynolds will officiate and the remains will be laid to rest in the Colwood Burial Park.

CARD OF THANKS
 Mr. John Forsyth and family wish to thank their many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and for the many beautiful floral tributes sent during their recent bereavement in the loss of a loving wife and mother. They especially wish to thank the Sisters, doctors and nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital for their many kindnesses.

Oak Bay Showing Frank Morgan Film

Medicine Man, "Con" Man, Wild Man—Frank Morgan plays all three in his newest laugh role in "The Wild Man of Borneo," opening today on the Oak Bay screen for a three-day showing.
An all-laugh, all-fun cast surrounds the comedian in the fast-paced, merry tale of show folk, based on the Broadway stage hit. Among the principals are Mary Howard, Billie Burke, Donald Meek and Marjorie Main.

PANGBORN STARS IN YORK STORY
Franklin Pangborn accepted a featured role in Hal Roach's "Topper Takes a Trip," the new comedy showing at the York Theatre, only upon the promise of Producer Milton H. Bren that he wouldn't have to faint in the film. Seems that in three previous pictures Pangborn had to faint in scenes, and he was tired of being typed as a "fainter."

CAPITOL THEATRE
On his own in New York, Andy Hardy gets into new "girl trouble," this time with Patricia Dane, who joins the Hardy Family group fresh from her success in "Ziegfeld Girl." Their romance begins in "Life Begins for Andy Hardy," which is currently on the Capitol screen with Mickey Rooney in his most popular role as Andy. Judy Garland again joins the Hardys in the new hit, with Lewis Stone and Fay Holden once again cast as Pa and Ma Hardy.

Will Make Apple Butter for Overseas
Apple butter, the preserve popular in Ontario and the Maritimes, has now been placed in the category of jams acceptable for shipment overseas, according to word received today from Miss Laura Pepper, home economics expert, Ottawa, by Mrs. P. Rayment, convener of the Local Council of Women-Red Cross jam-making committee.
The committee is therefore anxious to make a supply of this conserve and is appealing to the public for donations of apples. To date 8,000 pounds of jam has been made and it is hoped to reach the objective of 10,000 pounds or five tons from Victoria. Donations may be left at the Market Building on Wednesday or Saturdays.

Plane With Bombs In Pancake Landing
GREENLAND, N.H. (AP)—A twin-motored bombing plane of the R.C.A.F., its bomb racks still half loaded, skidded into a near-miraculous pancake landing in a hay field in the early morning darkness, near here today, with all members of its four-man crew escaping injury.
Those aboard the aircraft were Flt.-Lieut. P. H. Douglas of Hamilton, Ont.; Sergt. L. E. Fulton, A.C. John A. Boyd and Sergt. Alan M. Roy.
The four dashed from the plane as soon as it landed, and waited for some time to make sure the bombs would not explode. In the bomb racks were two 250-pound bombs and seven 25-pound bombs. One machine gun was loaded and mounted when the plane slid in, but later was unloaded.
Its gas supply nearly exhausted, the plane landed by the light of its own flares, after a mission that apparently had carried it out over the Atlantic. It plowed a deep furrow for more than 200 feet through the 100-acre hay field before coming to rest, badly damaged but still intact.

Fiery, Itching Skin Gets Quick Relief
Here is a clean stainless penetrating antiseptic now dispensed by chemists at trifling cost, that will bring you speedy relief from the itching and distress of Eczema, Itching Toes and Feet, Rash and skin troubles.
Not only does this great healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthy healing in open sores and wounds, but boils and simple ulcers are quickly relieved and cleanly healed. In skin diseases—the itching of Eczema is instantly stopped; the eruptions dry up and scale off in a very few days. The same is true of Barber's Itch, Salt Rheum and other skin eruptions.
You can obtain Moon's Emerald Oil (full strength) at MODERN PHARMACY, CUNNINGHAM DRUG STORE or any modern drug store.

STARS IN "LOVE AFFAIR," now showing at York Theatre are Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer.

Reluctant Dragon To Show at Atlas
"The Reluctant Dragon," which comes tomorrow to the screen at the Atlas theatre, combines both "live-action" photography and animated pictures. Locale of this movie is the Walt Disney studio itself, and for its star, Disney has chosen Robert Benchley, who serves as the centre of a whirlwind plot which riots through every department of the streamlined plant. Successive flesh-and-blood episodes are climaxed with the introduction of animated comedies in technicolor.

Cadet Features Conrad's 'Victory'
Starring together for the first time, Fredric March and Betty Field end the leading roles in the Paramount picturization of Joseph Conrad's great novel, "Victory," which opens today at the Cadet Theatre.
March plays a cynical island recluse whose faith in the world is restored through the love of a life-bruised young girl, Betty Field. The locale is mainly the island of Samburan, in the Dutch East Indies at the turn of the present century.
Fifteen featured players, a record number, comprise the cast of "Adam Had Four Sons," Columbia drama starring Ingrid Bergman and Warner Baxter at the Dominion Theatre tomorrow. A colorful picturization of the best-selling novel by Charles Boner, it is a Robert C. Sherwood production. Gregory Ratoff directed, and the long roster of players includes Fay Wray, Susan Hayward, Helen Westley, Richard Denning, Robert Shaw and Charles Lind.

'HOPALONG' TODAY ON RIO SCREEN
Horses, as well as actors, must be made up when they appear in a motion picture.
When William Boyd plays his star role in one of Paramount's "Hopalong" Cassidy pictures, two men work on the actor's horse almost constantly.
When "Three Men From Texas," which opens today at the Rio Theatre, was produced, Boyd on two occasions, had a 5 o'clock call and the grooms went to work on his mount at 2.30 a.m.

PLAZA THEATRE
One of the most accomplished actors on the screen today, with an enviable record of hits to his credit, Clive Brook also is a writer of no mean distinction. The star, currently to be seen at the Plaza theatre with Diana Wynyard in Columbia's "Wilhelmstrasse 110," does a good deal of writing for the press and for magazines.
While his literary output has been confined, hitherto, to prose, Brook turned poet during production of his current thriller.

Tigers Roam Wilds of Asia, Nearby Islands

Quite a long time ago I saw an amusing "skit" at a theatre. A man knocked on a door at a time which was supposed to be the middle of the night.

After much rapping, someone came to the door and said, "What to you want?"

"Are you the man who advertised in the paper for someone to go with him to Africa to hunt lions and tigers?" the visitor asked.

Statue of tiger in Thailand, with Buddhist priest beside it.

"Yes, I am. What about it? Why do you wake me up at this time of night?"

"Well, I just came to tell you that I absolutely refuse to go with you."

That was a bit funny, but there was something wrong about the visitor's first question, and the advertisement which he answered. A man may go to Africa to hunt lions, but if he expects to hunt tigers he is making a big mistake. African jungles and forests do not have tigers.

Almost all tigers are found in Asia and on islands near Asia. Just a few of them run wild in Russian Georgia, which is in Europe, near the border of Asia.

Tigers are "at home" in India, also in some parts of China. We find them in northern Asia, where they have coats of long, shaggy hair. They likewise live as far south as the islands of Java and Sumatra.

Tigers are as large and fierce as lions. Sometimes they are a bit larger than lions. More often than not they whip lions when there is a fight between these two "lords of the jungle."

Thailand, the country once called Siam, has many tigers. Statues of the beasts have been placed in certain Buddhist temples there, and at times the Buddhist priests worship before them. To do this is not to follow the pure Buddhist faith; it is only a custom which has grown up in a few parts of Thailand.

In general the people of Thailand look on the tiger as an enemy, not as a god. They hunt it and trap it.

One form of trap in the jungles of Thailand is made of raised logs in which bamboo spikes have been placed. When a tiger takes the bait, the logs fall and the spikes cut through his body.

HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 3

Benefic aspects rule today. Projects undertaken at this time should prove successful. It is an excellent time to plan a trip or to set out on a short journey. Hard work in the business world may result in promotions today.

Persons whose birthday it is have the augury of a successful year. Children born on this day may be industrious and stable.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 8 a.m. today—A disturbance has brought cloudiness to the British Columbia coast, and central rain in the northern section. In the interior the weather has been mostly fair and cool, locally cloudy in the Cariboo. On the coast it continues partly cloudy and with scattered showers in southern B.C.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—We are two girls, 15 years old. Will you try to explain to the parents of girls of our age how to understand us? They don't seem to know anything more about us than if we were wild animals. Could you name some of the likes and dislikes of most girls of our age? It might help us to get along better with our fathers and mothers. We haven't anybody else but you to turn to, for they think we are silly when we try to tell them why we want to do things. We love our parents more than anything else in the world, so please try to help us.

JUANITA AND BARBARA AND OTHERS.

Answer: The only way in which parents can understand 15-year-old girls is by remembering their own youth. For human nature doesn't change and the girls of today are just as much like Mother was when she was adolescent as the flowers that bloom in the spring are the ones that used to bloom in Grandma's back garden.

It is only the outward forms that are changed. Inside, girls are just the same.

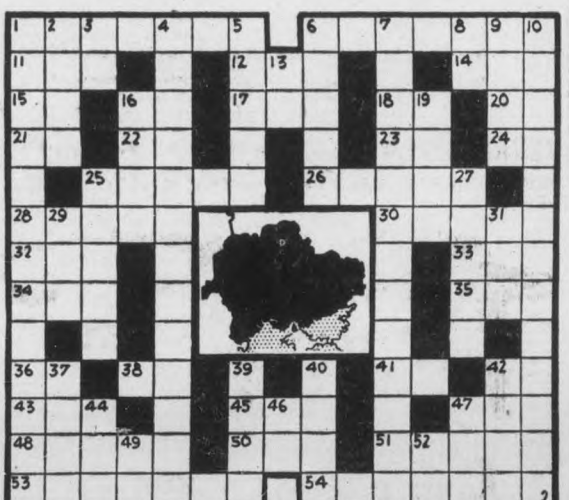

Mother was just as boy-crazy as Juanita and Barbara. Mother Mother was just as boy crazy as Juanita and Barbara. Mother ribbons about some moon-faced boy's cigarette butt and hung it on her mirror. Mother thought she would die if Johnny Jones took Susie Smith to the party instead of her, just as Juanita and Barbara do.

Perhaps when Mother reads these lines it will all come back to her, and she will laugh over the things she scolds about now.

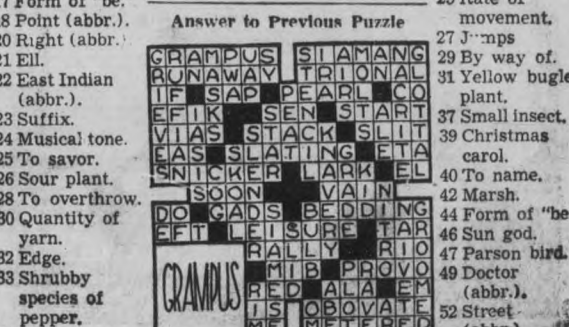

And maybe she won't take you so seriously, because she will know from her own experience that girls just have to go through these phases of development, and that if she will just give you a little time you will grow out of your silliness and settle down into being sensible, worthwhile women.
